Thought from St. Francis de Sales:

Let us embrace the good Jesus, living in daily attachment to Him and ready to die serenely in His presence. Place Him in your heart, like Solomon on his ivory throne. Make frequent visits there as the queen of Sheba did. Listen to His sacred words that He continually utters for our inspiration. Take care that your heart is always made of pure and firm ivory. Be constant in your resolutions and pure in your affections. (Letters 2010; O. XXI, p. 658)

From The Liturgical Year, Sexagesima

by Dom Gueranger, O.S.B.

Come, be converted unto Me, saith the Lord. Let us come weeping, and pour out our tears before God, for we have been negligent, and because of us is the earth suffering. We have committed iniquity, and because of us are the foundations of the world moved. Let us hasten to avert the wrath of God; let us weep, and say: O Thou, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us!

Behold, now are close at hand those days of salvation, which the cycle of the year brings round to us, and in which we desire, by the exercise of salutary abstinence, to apply a remedy to our evil doings. For, as the apostle says: This is the acceptable time, and, these are the days of salvation, wherein a spiritual cure is given to the soul that seeks it, and the evil delights of sin are rooted from the mind. Hereby, we, whose evil habits are ever forcing us to a downward tendency, are by the uplifting mercy of God, encouraged to rise above this earth; that thus, by the devout observance of what these days require, we may not only be delivered from the guilt of our sins, but may moreover deserve to be companions with the elect in eternal bliss. Amen.

2024 Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA)

Live the Mission with a Generous Heart

Blessed are those who are poor ... meek ... hungry ... merciful. Mt 5:1-12

The word beatitude literally means "happiness" or "blessedness." What is the significance of Jesus' beatitudes, and why are they so central to His teaching? The beatitudes respond to the natural desire for happiness that God has placed in every heart. Jesus' beatitudes also confront us with important choices concerning the life we pursue here on earth and the use we make of the gifts that God has entrusted to us.

Thank you to those who have already made a gift to the ACA!
