Announcements

Dear Parishioners,

Why seek you the living with the dead? He is not here, but is risen. —Luke 24:5-6

I would like to wish all of you a most Blessed Easter. Rejoice! Christ has conquered death and sin, let us be victorious with Him. The crown of glory will not be given to us here below on earth, but it awaits for us in heaven.

During these difficult and trying times, let us never forget that we must share the same lot as Christ. We must pass through the Cross in order to attain the glory of the Resurrection. Hopefully this Easter, we can gain a greater appreciation of all the spiritual gifts, graces, Masses etc. that we have been blessed to receive in our lives.

As always, rest assure of my prayers for you at the altar.

Faithfully yours in Christ the King,

Canon Andrew Todd

Pastor
