Announcements

Dear Parishioners,

Two weeks. In two weeks time we will be celebrating the victory of Christ over sin and death. Christ came not to make this world a heaven, but rather make heaven attainable. He transformed our nature through His Incarnation and His Theandric Acts, especially His Passion, Death, and Resurrection, but we are all still subject to the pains which Original Sin brought about upon us, namely sufferings and death. In this time where sufferings and death are being highlighted by the news, let us see them through the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Christ.

Today we begin Passion Week which will lead us into Holy Week. The sufferings of Christ and His Mother were far greater than anything we may have endured. Let us suffer and pray with them during these days.

I thank everyone who may have mailed or dropped off their Sunday offerings. Thank you for your generosity and remembering Sts. Cyril and Methodius. A new schedule with different hours will be created for Holy Week. The openings times will differ; please take a careful look at that schedule.

Rest assured of my prayers for you during these times. You are always remembered at my Masses.

Faithfully yours in Christ the King,

Canon Andrew Todd
Pastor
