Announcements

Dear Parishioners,

As we enter now into the month of May, we hope and pray that we are close to a day when there will be a return to some sort of publicly scheduled Masses. Given the current circumstances, when that day comes certain limits and precautions will certainly still be in place. Currently we are limited to 50 people who must practice "social distancing". Without a doubt, these measures will still be in place.

We hope to be able to add at least another Mass on Sundays in order that as many parishioners may attend as possible. Given the small number of 50, priority will be given to registered parishioners of Sts. Cyril and Methodius. In order to have the maximum number of people attend Mass without going over, we will be implementing a sign-up system. Additionally, to ensure the cleanliness of the facilities, we will be asking for teams of parishioners to volunteer to help clean after Masses.

I thank everyone for their prayers and help. Rest assured of my prayers especially at the altar.

Faithfully yours in Christ the King,

Canon Andrew Todd
Pastor
