THE CATHOLIC DOGMA OF THE BLESSED TRINITY (taken from the Athanasian Creed)

Whosoever willeth to be saved, * before all things it is necessary that he hold the Catholic faith. Which faith except every one do keep whole and undefiled, * without doubt he shall perish eternally.

Now the Catholic faith is this, * that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trinity in Unity. Neither confounding the Persons, * nor dividing the substance.

For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, * and another of the Holy Ghost. But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost is one, * the Glory Equal, the Majesty Co-Eternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son, * and such is the Holy Ghost.

The Father Uncreated, the Son Uncreated, * and the Holy Ghost Uncreated.

The Father Infinite, the Son Infinite, * and the Holy Ghost Infinite. * The Father Eternal, the Son Eternal, * and the Holy Ghost Eternal.

And yet they are not three Eternals, * but one Eternal.

As also they are not three Uncreated, nor three Infinities, * but One Uncreated, and One Infinite.

So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Almighty, * and the Holy Ghost Almighty.

And yet they are not three Almighty, * but One Almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son God, * and the Holy Ghost God.

And yet they are not three Gods, * but One God.

So the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, * and the Holy Ghost Lord.

And yet they are not three Lords, * but One Lord.

For, like as we are compelled by Christian truth to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be God and Lord, * so are we forbidden by the Catholic Religion to say, there be three Gods or three Lords.

The Father is made of none, * neither created, nor begotten.

The Son is of the Father alone: * not made, nor created, but begotten.

The Holy Ghost is of the Father, and the Son: * not made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is One Father, not three Fathers; one Son, not three Sons; * one Holy Ghost, not three Holy Ghosts.

And in this Trinity is nothing afore or after, nothing is greater or less; * but the whole three Persons are Co-Eternal together, and Co-Equal.

So that in all things, as is aforesaid, * the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity is to be worshipped.

He therefore that willeth to be saved, * let him thus think of the Trinity.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI
Thursday, June 16th at 6:15 p.m.

High Mass featuring the Missa Pange lingua of Josquin des Prez (c. 1450-1521) and polyphonic motets

Following Mass, there will be an outdoor procession of the Blessed Sacrament. Four men of the parish will be needed to carry the canopy, and we will require a large number of servers. First communicants may wear their dresses and scatter petals for the procession.

Feel free to invite your friends!

Proper Attire in Church

Now that the warm summer weather is here, just a friendly reminder about the importance of coming to church decently attired. Although it can be tempting to dress with comfort primarily in mind, out of respect for God's house, it is important to dress with modesty and decorum. Revealing or tight-fitting clothing do not meet the norms for Christian modesty, especially in church. Gentlemen are kindly asked not to wear shorts in church, and especially on Sundays are encouraged to wear slacks and a dress shirt. Ladies and girls should wear skirts or dresses falling at least below the knee (no exposed backs or shoulders) and are encouraged to have their heads covered, in keeping with the apostolic tradition.

CHURCH SAFETY COMMITTEE

Men of the parish interested in joining the church safety committee are invited to submit their contact information using one of the slips available on the table next to the bulletins. You can put this slip in the collection basket. There will be an introductory meeting in the church hall on Tuesday, June 14th at 6:30 p.m.
