Sunday, March 31: Easter Sunday

Usual Mass & Confession times

* 4pm Vespers & Benediction ****

Why doesn't the Easter Vigil fulfill my Sunday obligation this year? — Because the Mass will begin before 4pm, and only Saturday Masses starting at 4pm or later fulfill the Sunday obligation.

Why start so early? — The Traditional Rite of the Easter Vigil begins fittingly earlier, because the ceremony ends with Vespers (evening prayer), rather than Lauds (morning prayer), as it does in the new rite.

Why not begin a bit later, so that the ceremony can fulfill the Sunday obligation? — The Vigil was not conceived as a replacement for Easter Sunday, nor are they the same Masses. The Vigil starting late enough can only fulfill the Sunday obligation because of the general concession that Saturday evening Mass can fulfill your obligation. Easter is the Sunday of Sundays, and should be privileged. Like Holy Thursday and Good Friday, attendance at the Vigil is devotional.

Sound System and New Vestibule Doors

As of the date of this bulletin's submission, barring any unforeseen circumstances, the sound system installation should have been completed, and the vestibule doors are scheduled to be installed March 25 through 27.
