Diocese of Columbus — The Appeal 2024

Special Second Collection on Pentecost Sunday

Sunday, May 19, 2024**

Dear Faithful,

As your priest, I am very touched by the gratitude and generosity which animates you and which you demonstrate toward St. Leo Oratory.

As an apostolate of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest, we collaborate with the Institute at large wherein we receive a great deal of support. It is for this reason that we regularly take up special collections for our Province, our Seminary, and our Sisters Adorers of the Royal Heart, the female branch of the Institute. As the Oratory is and will continue to be staffed by the Institute, it is only fitting that we contribute for the well being of this worldwide family. I can't thank you enough for your support.

The Institute of Christ the King has a particular mission and charism to which we will remain faithful. However, our ministry is exercised in union and collaboration with the bishops of the dioceses in which we serve, they who succeed the apostles in the governance of the Church according to the hierarchical structure established by Christ.

For this reason, each year when The Appeal comes around, it is an opportunity to show our gratitude for what we have received through the Diocese of Columbus and the support of Bishop Robert Brennan and now Bishop Earl Fernandes. While such gratitude will naturally and most importantly be demonstrated through prayer, still, we should be mindful to contribute also materially to the needs of the local Church, by making a donation to The Appeal according to our means, conscious that spiritual as well as material support of the Church is incumbent upon faithful Catholics.

We have received a great deal through the Diocese of Columbus. We have inherited a beautiful church, which those attached to the immemorial rites of the Church can call home. We are blessed with the support of our bishop and so many diocesan priests, some of whom assist us regularly here at St. Leo Oratory. Conscious of all that we have received, we should be mindful of the virtue of gratitude — which is related to justice — which, as St. Thomas Aquinas teaches, seeks to go above and beyond in its desire to repay benefactors for the good things we have received from them.

I want to encourage each of you to consider prayerfully what you can contribute to this year's appeal, especially as there is the option to make a pledge which can be spread out over several months. Last year, Bishop Fernandes gathered pastors and explained that the Diocese of Columbus has been operating on a deficit now for several years and needs our support to continue its mission in central Ohio. The Appeal is not an organ of the USCCB; rather, it exists to meet the needs and costs locally here in our diocese in evangelization initiatives, diocesan administration, works of charity and, very importantly, seminarian and priestly formation.

In any fundraising effort, there can be questions or concerns. Please do not hesitate to reach out to me if you have either of these, and I will be happy to discuss them with you.

Thank you, again, for your faith and generosity.

Yours sincerely in Christ Our King,
Canon David Silvey
