FROM THE PASTOR, REV. CANON COMMINS

This Anniversary Year presents a special opportunity to express our profound gratitude for your ongoing support as we continue the restoration and beautification of the church and parish campus. Record numbers of souls continue to flow to Saint Joseph to receive the sacraments, to partake in the thriving life of our community, and to share the joy of our Shrine family.

Would you consider a special gift for this exceptional Anniversary Year? How could you honor St. Joseph better than by being a living stone of his Shrine!

Thank you for returning your JOIN THE LIVING LEGACY Envelopes at your earliest convenience.

PROJECTS UPDATE

- Stonework Completed! Last touchups and worksite cleanup this week.
- Two large stained glass windows are being re-installed.
- Last two large stained glass windows to go to the shop (in Wisconsin) in the next couple weeks after these two windows are reinstalled.
- The main entrance doors on the St. Joseph side of the church have been completely restored and will be returned shortly (brand new hardware to be installed later).
- The main entrance doors on the Blessed Virgin side will be restored on site in the upcoming weeks (brand new hardware to be installed later).
- New large central doors will be ordered to replace the old doors which are too damaged to be properly restored.
- Discussions with electrical engineer are underway to select the best option for new electrical, heating & cooling system.

Please continue to support our Historic Renewal Projects.

Thank you for your constant and generous support!
