FROM THE PASTOR, REV. CANON COMMINS

This season not only admonishes the sinner to do penance but also rejoices with him in the contemplation of the mystery of the Nativity since the Incarnation and the birth of the Son of God is the source and cause of all the heavenly blessings and graces we can receive or hope for. This first coming of our Lord had the only purpose to open the Gates of heaven that were closed because of our first parents fall.

When S. Symphorian was led to his martyrdom, his mother cried out to him, "My son, my son, remember life eternal, look to Heaven, behold Him Who reigns there; for the brief course of this life will soon be ended."
