FROM OUR PATRON, SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

“Our earthly nature easily falls away from its higher tone by reason of the frailty and evil tendency of the flesh, oppressing and dragging down the soul, unless it is constantly rising up by means of a vigorous resolution, just as a bird would speedily fall to the ground if it did not maintain its flight by repeated strokes of its wings. In order to do this you need frequently to reiterate the good resolutions you have made to serve God, for fear that, failing to do so, you fall away, not only to your former condition, but lower still; since it is a characteristic of all spiritual falls that they invariably throw us lower than we were at the beginning.”

This year we celebrate the 400th Anniversary of his death.

Saint Francis de Sales, pray for us!

PLANNED GIVING

Please remember St. Joseph Shrine in your Will or Living Trust. An appropriate Will or Trust provision would be:

“I, (full name), give _____ to St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church, Archdiocesan Shrine (1828 Jay Street, Detroit MI), for the Shrine’s use.”

LORD ... OHHH THE FLIES!

Dear Faithful, you may have noticed lots of flies in the church lately. They are called cluster flies. We are working closely with Orkin to identify the source and remove it. In addition, we are setting out fly traps near light sources. We may not be able to eradicate them, but we will hopefully keep them under control. Thank you for your patience! More to offer up!
