FROM OUR RECTOR, REV. CANON COMMINS

Dear faithful,

When some good is being done, when many souls are received in the house of God through the many sacraments given here at the Shrine, it is not surprising that a more subtle form of evil tries by all means to infiltrate and gangrene the good at work. Sentiments of superiority and excellence, legitimately or illegitimately, easily grow in the mind and little by little one forgets the good one has received not because of his or her own merit but out of pure goodness from God. What initially was good, slowly turns into a poisonous smoke that destroys the good odors of the work of Divine Providence and Grace. Brethren, says St Paul, even if a person is caught doing something wrong, you who are spiritual instruct such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ.
