FROM OUR PASTOR, REV. CANON COMMINS

Dear mothers!

Today, Mother's day is not just a nice day to enjoy probably some more rest and little gifts, today is neither just a big day for the flower industry or the thank you card business, nor a privileged day to get your hands off the kitchen sink, or the changing table or the kids home work!

No, today is a great day for you all to remember and cherish the precious gift of motherhood you have received! To rekindle in your heart the flame of that motherly love your family needs. But also to recall to your attention the grave duties you have been entrusted with: education of your children, love towards your husband, and first of all your submission and acceptance of God's Holy Will in all the troubles and difficulties of life!

May God grant you the grace to be always faithful to your beautiful mission!

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY—HELPERS OF THE HOLY FAMILY

We have been blessed with a beautiful and historic church. However, keeping our church clean and beautiful is a duty for us all that has too often fallen on the shoulders of only a couple of generous souls. Please prayerfully consider volunteering your time on Saturdays after Holy Mass for the cleaning of the church. For scheduling, new and returning volunteers should contact Canon Sharpe at sjdetroit@icksp.org. Please remember that the intentions of those who help clean the church are remembered every month at the Holy Mass offered for Shrine Groups. Do not miss this opportunity to obtain extra graces while helping the common good!
