INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

BE CAREFUL WHEN YOU MAKE NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

Making resolutions for a whole year is foolish. We live one day at a time, not one year at a time.

The masters of the spiritual life all encourage daily resolutions and daily examinations of conscience. This daily approach allows us to progress one step at a time and to pick ourselves up after each fall. It is also much easier to avoid discouragement when we are not looking to the past or the distant future. As King David wisely said, "I pay my vows day by day."

A monk was once asked, "What do you monks do in the monastery?" The monk replied, "We fall and get up again, fall and get up again."

While we may have illusions that saints are those who never fall, and may long for a day when we will be invincible to failure, this simply isn't reality. The only difference between the saints and the rest of humanity is that the saints kept getting up again, returning to God in repentance until the day of their death. Fall and get up again — this is the only prescription for holiness. Those who patiently endure will not be without their reward, for in the words of our Lord, "He who perseveres to the end will be saved."

All too many of us collapse in exhaustion. But blessed is he who yields his plans and says to the Lord: "I'm tired: You take control," for he shall know that the Lord has sustained him all his life, and shall sustain him through eternity. And when the Lord has taken control all he has to do from there is enjoy the scenery of the Kingdom of God that is all around him.

May we take our plans lightly, O Lord, and from there, may we take ourselves lightly, that we may fly like the angels, saying always: Thy will be done. You can count on my priestly dedication.

Have a blessed New Year! May God bless you!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Blessing of the Epiphany Water & Chalk

Wednesday, January 5 - Following the 6:00 p.m. Mass

The feast of the manifestation, or Epiphany, is traditionally celebrated on the 12th day after Christmas on January 6. This Feast is a great feast in memory of Jesus showing His glory in 3 ways: as an infant to the Magi, at His baptism, and at His first miracle at the wedding in Cana. It is a Holy Day of Obligation in many parts of the Catholic world, though not currently in the United States. It is traditional for parish priests to bless water on the eve or vigil of Epiphany which is then used for the blessing of homes the next day. It is also a common practice, depending on when the Epiphany falls in the calendar that the water and chalk are blessed on or around the day of the Epiphany. Chalk for each family is also blessed so that they may mark the names of the three Magi over their doors, as a witness of their faith and protection against evil. The blessing of water on the vigil of the Epiphany is performed with full solemnity before the main altar. It begins with the Litany of Saints, reading of Psalms 28, 46, and 146, the chanting of an Exorcism against Satan and the apostate angels, followed by various Canticles & the blessing of water with powerful and forceful prayers that purge the water of all evils and demons and that implore God's benediction for health of body and protection of soul. A hymn of praise; Te Deum, concludes the ceremony.

The exorcisms are unique to the Epiphany water and make it a powerful sacramental against attacks of Satan so that "wherever this water and salt is sprinkled it may turn aside every attack of the unclean spirit". The water is poured into the Holy Water tank and is used in the blessings of the homes during the Octave of the Epiphany.

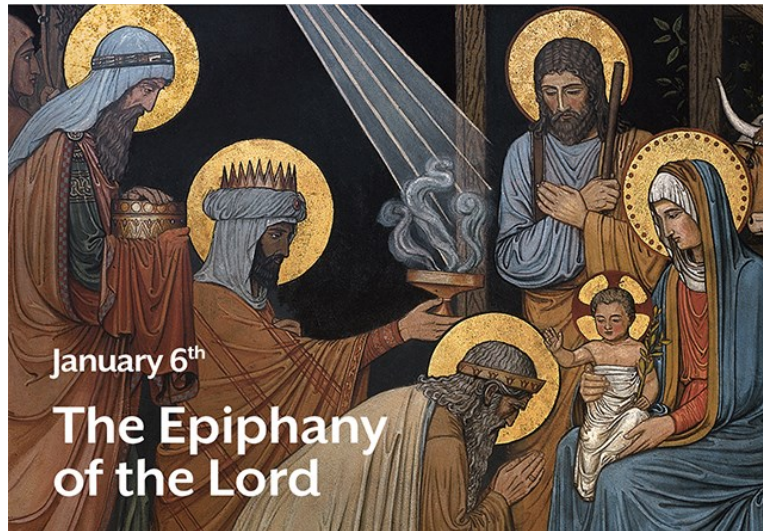

The home is blessed on the Feast of the Epiphany or during the Octave by a priest or senior member of the household. The purpose of the blessing is to witness to the Faith and to beseech salvific benefits and protection from evil. If a priest is present, incense is used. Holy water is sprinkled throughout the home and, using blessed chalk, the lintel of each exterior-leading door is marked with the year and initials of the three kings, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. The initials also form the first letters of the Latin prayer Christus mansionem benedicat [May God bless this house], and serve as a reminder of the date and purpose of the blessing.

After the Epiphany water and chalk are blessed, they will be available for families to take and bless their homes.

EPHIPHANY WATER, HOUSE BLESSING

If you would like to have your home blessed using this most powerful sacramental, please contact Canon Boucheron at canon.boucheron@institute-christ-king.org to schedule a time. It is always preferred that a Priest bless the home but the Epiphany home blessing may be done by the head of household if a Priest is not available.

The Blessing of the Home prayers, instructions, Epiphany water and blessed chalk will be available in the side entrance on January 6. Please be mindful of the amount you take as we have many more families this year.

January 6th

The Epiphany of the Lord

EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Epiphany is one of the oldest Christian feasts and one of the most important. Historically, Epiphany celebrated four things: Jesus' nativity, the Magi's visit to the Holy Family, Jesus' baptism, and Jesus' first miracle at the wedding feast of Cana. Each biblical event is a theophany, or epiphany, a special manifestation of Jesus Christ to mankind. The relationship between these events is beautifully described in this antiphon from the Divine Office: "This day is the Church joined unto the Heavenly Bridegroom, since Christ hath washed away her sins in Jordan; the wise men hasten with gifts to the marriage supper of the King; and they that sit at meat together make merry with water turned into wine. Alleluia." In the Latin Church the visit of the Three Kings is the primary focus of Epiphany, symbolizing the revelation of Jesus Christ as a light for the Gentile nations and the Savior born for the redemption of all mankind. Epiphany is January 6th, traditionally marking the end of the 12 days of Christmas.

Blessing of Children on the Feast of the Holy Family - January 9

The Confraternity of Christian Mothers - CCM of St. Patrick's Oratory has requested a special blessing for children be performed on the Feast of the Holy Family, January 9, after the 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Masses, in response to Christ's command to "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for the kingdom of heaven is theirs, and their angels always see the face of my Father." Following Mass:

The children are to be assembled near the front of the church.

The priest begins the ceremony with antiphons and psalms. Several prayers follow that beg God's blessing on them to "let them constantly advance, desiring thee, loving thee, fearing thee, obeying thy commandments -- thus coming to their destined home, through thee, Savior of the world." Another prayer asks God's protection of children in every adversity and a special invocation directed towards the children's angel guardians.

We are privileged to have these special blessings and sacramentals available to us and therefore it is incumbent upon us to take full advantage of them in order to help protect ourselves and our loved ones in these wicked times.

EXODUS

Exodus 90

Exodus 90 is a ninety-day spiritual exercise for men based on three pillars: prayer, asceticism, and fraternity. All three of these pillars are essential aspects of the Christian life. It is for this reason that taking up this spiritual exercise requires taking up all three of these pillars both simultaneously and humbly.

Exodus 90 begins January 17, 2022, and ends on Holy Saturday, April 16, 2022. If we can get a big enough group of men at St. Patrick's willing to accept the challenge (preferably at least 5 men), we'll move forward with scheduling weekly meetings at a time and location that works for everyone.

For more information about Exodus 90 please visit exodus90.com or contact Eric Brandt at (920) 450-2326 or email ericrossbrandt@gmail.com.
