INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Not good, very good!

Notice that the bridal couple in today's Gospel didn't even ask for Mary's help, or suggest a specific thing that they needed; because for those that are Mary's friends, it is enough to be in need – and she will notice. And having noticed, she will put the need in her Son's hands, and will get results.

That really is a better way to pray, anyway. It is surely a lot better than telling God how He ought to run the universe, and what He should do for us. That is a pride-filled attitude, and one that God often disdains. On the other hand if we simply ask Mary to "pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death," we know that she will obtain only those things that are truly good for us, and for our eternal salvation.

Now, I suspect that we will always go and itemize our needs when we pray – that's human nature – but, at least if we refrain from telling Mary and Jesus what they should do, we will be rewarded with the best possible outcome for our prayers.

Just think about what the Gospel said. When Mary insisted that her Son see to the needs of her friends, He didn't solve the problem by just putting a suggestion in the guests' heads that maybe they were tired anyway and it was time for the party to be over. No, instead He made wine from water so that all could rejoice through Mary's generosity. And the wine wasn't just good – it was very good – the wine was the best they had ever tasted!

Let's do whatever He tells us to do and we will have our graces!

May God bless you!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Chair of Unity Octave

Oration for the removal of schism

January 18 - January 25

From January 18 (Feast of the Chair of St. Peter in Rome) to January 25 (the Conversion of St. Paul) are the Octave of Prayers for the Unity of the Church. This prayer is said once-a-day during this Octave.

Ant. That they all may be one, as Thou, Father, in me and I in Thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent me.

V. I say to thee, that thou art Peter,

R. And upon this rock I will build my Church.

Let us pray:

Lord Jesus Christ, Who didst say to thine Apostles: peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, look not upon my sins, but upon the faith of Thy Church; and vouchsafe unto her that peace and unity which is agreeable to Thy will: Who livest and reignest God forever and ever. Amen.

Intentions of the Octave

January 18th: The union of all Christians in the one true Faith and in the Church;

January 19th: The return of separated Eastern Christians to communion with the Holy See;

January 20th: The reconciliation of Anglicans with the Holy See;

January 21st: The reconciliation of European Protestants with the Holy See;

January 22nd: That American Christians become one in union with the Chair of Peter;

January 23rd: The restoration of lapsed Catholics to the sacramental life of the Church;

January 24th: That the Jewish people come into their inheritance in Jesus Christ;

January 25th: The missionary extension of Christ's kingdom throughout the world.

SPECIAL APPEAL FROM CANON

Dear Parishioners,

Once again, I need your special help. You have all been so very generous with our congregation that I find it almost embarrassing to even ask for more help. But currently I am facing very costly repairs to the car I inherited and have been driving these last several years. I have added 170,000 miles to it since being assigned to St. Patrick's. But given the age and mileage on the car, it's time for a new one.

It's quite an unexpected and extraordinary expense, but a car is a necessary tool for a priest today. The next vehicle will remain the property of St. Patrick's Oratory, as has been in the past.

Thank you for your generosity and understanding.

Your donations should be in an envelope marked "Car for Canon" and placed in the collection baskets.

EXODUS

Exodus 90

Exodus 90 is a ninety-day spiritual exercise for men based on three pillars: prayer, asceticism, and fraternity. All three of these pillars are essential aspects of the Christian life. It is for this reason that taking up this spiritual exercise requires taking up all three of these pillars both simultaneously and humbly.

Exodus 90 begins January 17, 2022, and ends on Holy Saturday, April 16, 2022. If we can get a big enough group of men at St. Patrick's willing to accept the challenge (preferably at least 5 men), we'll move forward with scheduling weekly meetings at a time and location that works for everyone.

For more information about Exodus 90 please visit exodus90.com or contact Eric Brandt at (920) 450-2326 or email ericrossbrandt@gmail.com.
