INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Always difficult, never impossible.

Forgiveness means the pardon of an offense. When we forgive, we are discovering the value and beneficial results of forgiveness. When we establish peace with others, we find that we are at peace with ourselves. To motivate our effort in this regard we should remember that our prayers and sacrifices to God are not acceptable to Him if we are not reconciled with others. The more we forgive, the more we will be forgiven.

This morning, each of us is in the skin of the leper. We are covered with injuries on the skin of our heart. Against that, the only efficient medicine is forgiveness. We need to be healed and only Jesus can cure this leprosy.

We can tell him directly: "Jesus, up until now, I have not been able to forgive this or that evil which I have endured. I know it is like leprosy in my soul, but I have the faith of the centurion and I am convinced that you, Jesus, can bring peace and the strength of forgiveness, the forgiveness I have not been able to give. Jesus, please shape it in my soul and then I will be cured and freed of the weight of this resentment.

May God help us!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Saint Francis de Sales'

Bishop, Confessor, Doctor of the Church, Institute Patron
Saturday, January 29 - 9:00 a.m. Mass

Francis was destined by his father to be a lawyer so that the young man could eventually take his elder's place as a senator from the province of Savoy in France. For this reason Francis was sent to Padua to study law. After receiving his doctorate, he returned home and, in due time, told his parents he wished to enter the priesthood. His father strongly opposed Francis in this, and only after much patient persuasiveness on the part of the gentle Francis did his father finally consent. Francis was ordained and elected provost of the Diocese of Geneva, then a center for the Calvinists. Francis set out to convert them, especially in the district of Chablais. By preaching and distributing the little pamphlets he wrote to explain true Catholic doctrine, he had remarkable success.

At 35, he became bishop of Geneva. While administering his diocese he continued to preach, hear confessions, and catechize the children. His gentle character was a great asset in winning souls. He practiced his own axiom, "A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrel of vinegar."

Besides his two well-known books, the Introduction to the Devout Life and A Treatise on the Love of God, he wrote many pamphlets and carried on a vast correspondence. For his writings, he has been named patron of the Catholic Press. His writings, filled with his characteristic gentle spirit, are addressed to lay people. He wants to make them understand that they too are called to be saints. As he wrote in The Introduction to the Devout Life: "It is an error, or rather a heresy, to say devotion is incompatible with the life of a soldier, a tradesman, a prince, or a married woman.... It has happened that many have lost perfection in the desert who had preserved it in the world."

In spite of his busy and comparatively short life, he had time to collaborate with another saint, Jane Frances de Chantal, in the work of establishing the Sisters of the Visitation. These women were to practice the virtues exemplified in Mary's visit to Elizabeth: humility, piety, and mutual charity. They at first engaged to a limited degree in works of mercy for the poor and the sick. Today, while some communities conduct schools, others live a strictly contemplative life.

GAIN A PLENARY INDULGENCE ON THE FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

With great joy and solemnity we will celebrate this week the Feast of Saint Francis de Sales. More than ever do we need the wisdom, supernatural optimism and example of this great saint, spiritual director and missionary. He is one of the principal Patrons of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest. We would like you to know that all the faithful, assisting at Holy Mass on Saturday, January 29 in one of the Institute's churches or oratories may gain a plenary indulgence under the ordinary conditions.

SPECIAL APPEAL FROM CANON

Dear Parishioners,

Once again, I need your special help. You have all been so very generous with our congregation that I find it almost embarrassing to even ask for more help. But currently I am facing very costly repairs to the car I inherited and have been driving these last several years. I have added 170,000 miles to it since being assigned to St. Patrick's. But given the age and mileage on the car, it's time for a new one.

It's quite an unexpected and extraordinary expense, but a car is a necessary tool for a priest today. The next vehicle will remain the property of St. Patrick's Oratory, as has been in the past.

Thank you for your generosity and understanding.

Your donations should be in an envelope marked "Car for Canon" and placed in the collection baskets.
