INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Whatever you do...

We overcome evil by being stronger in faith, by imitating Jesus on the cross. Suffering evil, whether physical or moral, is more bearable when the sufferer is united to the Crucifixion that Jesus endured for the sins of all men. All suffering, offered up in reparation for personal sins and the sins of others, and in union with the Redeemer, can win grace for the entire world.

St. Paul gives us the key in the Epistle for today: "Put on a heart of mercy, kindness, humility, meekness and patience. Bear with one another and forgive one another... But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection... And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts... Show yourselves thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly. Whatever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God the Father through Jesus Christ our Lord."

If we strive to live like that, we will be able to deal with and triumph over all the evil and suffering that comes our way. Christ did it and He assures us that we also can do it with His grace - if we follow Him and imitate Him.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Welcome to St. Patrick's Oratory

Dear Visitors: You are warmly welcomed by the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest, Canon Antoine Boucheron, and the lay faithful of this parish. The Institute celebrates the usus antiquior (ancient usage) or the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the Classical Roman Rite known as the Extraordinary Form. Our prayer is that you will come to appreciate and participate fully in the beautiful liturgy, sacraments, and the spiritual and social life of this community. Canon Boucheron will be happy to meet you and answer any questions.

THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY

The month of February is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Family. Between the events which marked Christmas and the beginning of Christ's public life, the Church has seen fit to recall the example of the Holy Family for emulation by the Christian family. This month is also dedicated to the Passion of Our Lord in anticipation of the liturgical season of Lent. In this month, we begin to meditate on the mystery of Jesus' sufferings which culminated in His death on the Cross for the redemption of mankind. Saints who had a special devotion to Christ's passion include St. Francis of Assisi, who was the first known saint to receive the stigmata; St. John of the Cross; St. Bridget of Sweden; and St. Catherine of Siena.

Feast of the Apparition of the Blessed Virgin at Lourdes

6:00 p.m. Mass - Friday, February 11

"I am the Immaculate Conception"

The many miracles which have been performed through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin at Lourdes prompted the Church to institute a special commemorative feast, the "Apparition of the Immaculate Virgin Mary." Four years after the promulgation of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception (1854), the Blessed Virgin appeared eighteen times between February 11 and July 16 to a very poor and holy girl named Bernadette. The actual spot was in a grotto, Massabielle, on the bank of the Gave River near Lourdes.

The Immaculate Conception had a youthful appearance and was clothed in a pure white gown and mantle, with an azure blue girdle. A golden rose adorned each of her bare feet. On her first apparition, February 11, 1858, the Blessed Virgin bade the girl make the sign of the Cross piously and say the rosary with her. Bernadette saw her take the rosary that was hanging from her arms into her hands. This was repeated in subsequent apparitions.

With childlike simplicity Bernadette once sprinkled holy water on the vision, fearing that it was a deception of the evil spirit; but the Blessed Virgin smiled pleasantly, and her face became even more lovely. The third time Mary appeared she invited the girl to come to the grotto daily for two weeks. Now she frequently spoke to Bernadette. On one occasion she ordered her to tell the ecclesiastical authorities to build a church on the spot and to organize processions. Bernadette also was told to drink and wash at the spring still hidden under the sand. Finally on the feast of the Annunciation, the beautiful Lady announced her name, "I am the Immaculate Conception."

The report of cures occurring at the grotto spread quickly and the more it spread, the greater the number of Christians who visited the hallowed place. The publicity given these miraculous events on the one hand and the seeming sincerity and innocence of the girl on the other made it necessary for the Bishop of Tarbes to institute a judicial inquiry. Four years later he declared the apparitions to be supernatural and permitted the public veneration of the Immaculate Conception in the grotto. Soon a chapel was erected, and since that time countless pilgrims come every year to Lourdes to fulfill promises or to beg graces. The message of Lourdes is a call to personal conversion, prayer, and charity. Our Lady of Lourdes, Pray for us.

An Act of Consecration to Mary Immaculate Patroness of the United States of America

(Proclaimed under this title in 1846)

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven, who chose Mary as the fairest of your daughters; Holy Spirit, who chose Mary as your spouse; God the Son, who chose Mary as your Mother; in union with Mary, we adore your majesty and acknowledge your supreme eternal dominion and authority. Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you. Through her we wish to thank you for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage. Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the innocence of our children. Grant the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the poor, the tempted, sinners—on all who are in need. Mary, Immaculate Virgin, Our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the Will of your Divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God.
