INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Rise and do not be afraid

The reason for the apostles' witness of the transfiguration of Our Lord was to strengthen them to remain strong in faith even though they would descend the Mount of Transfiguration to ascend Mount Calvary.

When they would see Jesus transfigured in blood, they would be able to remember Jesus in glory, to see, with the testimony of the law and the prophets, that the Passion leads to the glory of the Resurrection.

It was to sustain their faith in trial. We know that it didn't fully work. The same three apostles fell asleep in the Garden. They and the others fled from Gethsemane.

Only John was present at the foot of the Cross; while the rest of the apostles for the most part failed under this trial, it's meant to sustain us.

This vision of Jesus' glory is what has sustained the faith of the martyrs in making the sacrifice of themselves for God, because they knew that once they breathed their last, they would see Jesus transfigured.

This vision of Jesus' glory is meant to give us the hope to persevere in faith no matter what trials come our way. It's also what's meant to help us live Lent boldly and make the sacrifices necessary in Lent to come into greater union with the Lord. If anything is keeping us from the Lord, the vision of the Lord's glory is meant to help us to persevere. The sacrifice is worth it! Whatever we have to give up makes sense compared to the glory of Jesus we await, the glory he wants to share with us.

Have a blessed Lent!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

MARCH MONTH OF ST. JOSEPH

The Church traditionally dedicates the month of March to the special veneration of St. Joseph, whose feast day is March 19th. "He was chosen by the eternal Father as the trustworthy guardian and protector of his greatest treasures, namely, his divine Son and Mary, Joseph's wife," says St. Bernardine of Siena. "He carried out this vocation with complete fidelity until at last God called him, saying 'Good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of your Lord.'" Due to St. Joseph's leadership of the Holy Family, he has been declared the protector and patron of the universal Catholic Church.

"Of all the people I have known with a true devotion and particular veneration for St. Joseph, not one has failed to advance in virtue; he helps those who turn to him to make real progress. For several years now, I believe, I have always made some request to him on his feast day, and it was always granted; and when my request is not quite what it ought to be, he puts it right for my greater benefit." — St. Teresa of Avila

SAINT PATRICK - Parton of the Oratory

Thursday, March 17 - 8:00 a.m. Mass

St. Patrick (387-493) was born in Kilpatrick, Scotland, to Roman-British parents. He was kidnapped by Irish raiders at the age of sixteen and sold as a slave to a Druid high priest. He worked as a shepherd and spent much time in prayer as he labored in the fields. He also acquired a perfect knowledge of the Celtic language and the Druid cult, which later enabled him to evangelize the Celtic people. After six years of slavery, an angel told him to flee his oppressive master and return to his native land. Upon returning to Britain, Patrick desired to devote himself to God's service. He went to France and placed himself under the direction of St. Germain, who ordained him a priest and sent him to evangelize the pagans in Ireland. St. Patrick devoted the rest of his life to converting the island to Christianity. He was ordained a bishop and himself ordained many priests. He divided the country into dioceses, held local Church councils, founded monasteries, and urged the people to greater holiness. He suffered much opposition from the Druids and occult magicians, who, threatened by Christianity, conjured demonic power to defy Patrick. However, the prayer, faith, fearlessness, and episcopal authority of Patrick triumphed, and he was so successful in his endeavor that in the Middle Ages Ireland became known as the Land of Saints, and himself the "Apostle of Ireland." Later, the missionaries sent from Ireland to Europe were largely responsible for the Christianizing of the continent. St. Patrick's feast day is March 17th.

SAINT JOSEPH

Spouse of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary & Patron of the Universal Church

Saturday, March 19 - 6:30 a.m. & 9:00 a.m. Mass

St. Joseph (1st c.) was a descendant of Israel's King David and a carpenter by trade. Scripture tells us that he was a just and virtuous man who was betrothed to wed the young Blessed Virgin Mary. Upon finding her expecting a child that was the Son of God, Joseph, after a time of uncertainty, was encouraged by an angel to continue with the espousal plans. Because of his complete faithfulness and obedience to the will of God, St. Joseph was chosen to become the spouse of the Mother of God and the adoptive father of Jesus Christ. As the divinely-appointed earthly guardian and protector of the Holy Family, St. Joseph provided and cared for the material needs of Mary and the Child Jesus. St. Joseph is the patron saint of many causes, especially fathers, families, married couples, children, pregnant women, workers, craftsmen, against doubt, the dying, and a happy and holy death. He is also the guardian and protector of the Universal Church. He has two feast days: St. Joseph the Husband of Mary on March 19th, and St. Joseph the Worker on May 1st.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The Stations of the Cross constitute a miniature pilgrimage, a spiritual journey that the faithful make in spirit as they pray and meditate on the scenes of the Passion of Jesus Christ. Tradition tells us that the Blessed Virgin Mary daily visited the place of her Son's passion and death. This Way of the Cross has become a favorite devotion of the faithful, richly endowed with indulgences when approached with the proper dispositions, and graces.
