The Reverend Canon Matthew Talarico
Provincial Superior

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Thank You, God,

for our Mothers.

Happy Mother's Day!

"It can thus be said that women, by looking to Mary, find in her the secret of living their femininity with dignity and of achieving their own true advancement. In the light of Mary, the Church sees in the face of women the reflection of a beauty which mirrors the loftiest sentiments of which the human heart is capable: the self-offering totality of love; the strength that is capable of bearing the greatest sorrows; limitless fidelity and tireless devotion to work; the ability to combine penetrating intuition with words of support and encouragement" (St. John Paul II, Redemptoris Mater).

It is indeed, in our Mothers' love for us, that we first experience the love that God has for us.

Jesus provides the beautiful image of His love for us as the Good Shepherd who lays down His body as the sheepgate to protect and care for His sheep, but it is our Mothers, who in loving us so completely, sacrificially, and unconditionally, that actually experience the love that God has for each of us.

Thank you, Moms!

Have a Happy Mothers' Day!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Sts. Philip & James, Apostles

Wednesday, May 11 - 8:00 a.m. Mass

James, Son of Alphaeus: We know nearly nothing of this man except his name, and, of course, the fact that Jesus chose him to be one of the 12 pillars of his Church. He is not the James of Acts, son of Clopas, “brother” of Jesus and later bishop of Jerusalem and the traditional author of the Letter of James. James, son of Alphaeus, is also known as James the Lesser to avoid confusing him with James the son of Zebedee, also an apostle and known as James the Greater.

Philip: Philip came from the same town as Peter and Andrew, Bethsaida in Galilee. Jesus called him directly, whereupon he sought out Nathanael and told him of the “one about whom Moses wrote” (Jn 1:45).

Like the other apostles, Philip took a long time coming to realize who Jesus was. On one occasion, when Jesus saw the great multitude following him and wanted to give them food, he asked Philip where they should buy bread for the people to eat. Saint John comments, “[Jesus] said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do” (Jn 6:6). Philip answered, “Two hundred days’ wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little [bit]” (Jn 6:7).

John’s story is not a put-down of Philip. It was simply necessary for these men who were to be the foundation stones of the Church to see the clear distinction between humanity’s total helplessness apart from God and the human ability to be a bearer of divine power by God’s gift.

On another occasion, we can almost hear the exasperation in Jesus’s voice. After Thomas had complained that they did not know where Jesus was going, Jesus said, “I am the way ... If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him” (Jn 14:6a, 7). Then Philip said, “Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us” (Jn 14:8). Enough! Jesus answered, “Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father” (Jn 14:9a).

Possibly because Philip bore a Greek name or because he was thought to be close to Jesus, some Gentile proselytes came to him and asked him to introduce them to Jesus. Philip went to Andrew, and Andrew went to Jesus. Jesus’s reply in John’s Gospel is indirect; Jesus says that now his “hour” has come, that in a short time he will give his life for Jew and Gentile alike.

CHURCH GROUNDS CLEANUP

Next Saturday, May 14 from 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. we will be having our annual Spring Grounds Cleanup. We need many volunteers, families and especially teenagers to help Canon Boucheron spruce up around the church grounds and parking lot. Picking up leaves, trash and general clean up. Please bring your gloves and yard clean up tools. Thank you!!!

The St. Monica Circle was founded by and has been part of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers for over one hundred years, and has been formed at St. Patrick’s Oratory by the Confraternity of Christian Mothers. It is open to all men, women, girls, and boys in our Oratory. Members pledge to offer at least one weekday Mass of their choice (need not be the same day each week) and their Holy Communion for “vocations in the Oratory,” reciting the two official prayers after the Mass for this intention. These prayers are said privately by the individual, not as a group. A missed Mass need not be made up. We need spiritual vocations at least as much as we need good Christian families: the Church must grow spiritually and physically. All are invited and urged to participate in this very efficacious spiritual work by becoming a member of the St. Monica Circle. If inspired to follow this call, there will be a sign-up sheet & prayers near the SCRIP table at the church May 8. If you have any questions, call Rose at (920)327-9005; or email ccm.officers@gmail.com
