INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Let's put out into the deep!

We see two important aspects of growing in holiness: obedience and humility.

St. Peter, an experienced fisherman, is told by a carpenter how to fish. But it is not just any carpenter; it is Our Lord Jesus Who commands. So Peter obeys, simply because he trusts the word of the Lord. And not only do they catch fish, but it is "a very great multitude of fishes," causing their nets to break.

In this Gospel, Peter's humility – which is often hidden behind his bluster – shines forth.

He not only obeys when the command seems useless, but also responds to the haul of fish by recognizing Christ's purity and divinity.

He says, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord."

On the road to holiness, we must endure suffering, obey the Lord, love, serve and have deep humility.

Under our own strength, these things are impossible, but with the Holy Ghost's help, each one of us can be sanctified and receive the "glory that is to come."

Have a blessed Sunday! Happy 4th of July!

God bless you! God bless America!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

JULY - MONTH OF THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

Happy 4th of July

A Prayer for Our Country

An Act of Consecration to Mary Immaculate
Patroness of the United States of America
(Proclaimed under this title in 1846)

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven, who chose Mary as the fairest of your daughters; Holy Spirit, who chose Mary as your spouse; God the Son, who chose Mary as your Mother; in union with Mary, we adore your majesty and acknowledge your supreme eternal dominion and authority. Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you. Through her we wish to thank you for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage. Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the innocence of our children. Grant the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the poor, the tempted, sinners—on all who are in need. Mary, Immaculate Virgin, Our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the Will of your Divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God.

JULY Month of the Precious Blood

The month of July traditionally honors the Most Precious Blood of Jesus. It is the blood of Christ, the Lamb of God, which cleanses us from sin—therefore the Church developed a devotion to Jesus' physical blood and its mystical power, just as it did for His Sacred Heart from which His blood poured out on the Cross. The Precious Blood of Jesus courses through the Church spiritually, giving eternal life to the Body of Christ through the sacraments. Many saints had a devotion to the Precious Blood of Jesus, especially St. Catherine of Siena. Devotion to the Precious Blood spread widely through the preaching of Saint Gaspar del Bufalo, who was a 19th-century priest and the founder of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood. This devotion was later approved and then recommended by the Holy See.

Constant Prayer of St. Catherine of Siena to the Precious Blood of Jesus

*Precious Blood, ocean of divine mercy: Flow upon us!
Precious Blood, most pure offering: Procure us every grace!
Precious Blood, hope and refuge of sinners: Atonement for us!
Precious Blood, delight of holy souls: Draw us! Amen.*

St. Antonius Mary Zaccaria

6:00 p.m. Mass - Tuesday, July 5

At the same time that Martin Luther was attacking abuses in the Church, a reformation within the Church was already being attempted. Among the early movers of the Counter-Reformation was Anthony Zaccaria. His mother became a widow at 18, and devoted herself to the spiritual education of her son. He received a medical doctorate at 22, and while working among the poor of his native Cremona in Italy, was attracted to the religious apostolate. He renounced his rights to any future inheritance, worked as a catechist, and was ordained a priest at the age of 26. Called to Milan in a few years, he laid the foundations of three religious congregations, one for men, one for women, and an association of married couples. Their aim was the reform of the decadent society of their day, beginning with the clergy, religious, and lay people.

Greatly inspired by Saint Paul—his congregation is named the Barnabites, after the companion of that saint—Anthony preached with great vigor in church and street, conducted popular missions, and was not ashamed of doing public penance.

Anthony encouraged such innovations as the collaboration of the laity in the apostolate, frequent Communion, the Forty Hours devotion, and the ringing of church bells at 3:00 p.m. on Fridays. His holiness moved many to reform their lives, but as with all saints, it also moved many to oppose him. Twice his community had to undergo official religious investigation, and twice it was exonerated.

While on a mission of peace, Anthony became seriously ill and was brought home for a visit to his mother. He died at Cremona at age 36.

Alexandrina Center Serving More Clients More Volunteers Needed!

The client numbers at Alexandrina Pregnancy Resource Center are climbing, and more volunteers are needed. The tasks are numerous, from helping out at the front desk, making sure clients have clothing, formula, and diapers, recording all statistics, being a mentor, helping out with the website, designing brochures, computer savvy tech support, Center cleaners, clothing organizers, and spiritual warriors.

The opportunity given to us by the grace of God with the fall of Roe v Wade must be met with more workers in the pro-life and pro-family vineyard. If you'd like to help promote the culture of life, helping the many women and children in Green Bay and surrounding area in a very definite charitable and Catholic manner, please contact Ann Shibley, 920-532-4032 to begin a discussion on where your talents and dedication can be put to the best possible use in this historic time.
