INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Scribes and Pharisees...

The standard to which Jesus calls us is the standard of Christian holiness, which is fidelity to the truth He has revealed and fidelity to His command to love everyone, including those who have made themselves our enemies, just like He has loved us.

Every crisis that the Church faces, every crisis that the Church has ever confronted, is a crisis of saints. A crisis is a time in which we turn much more to God for the grace we need to remain faithful and in that crucible God forms us to be adequate to respond to the time, just like He did in converting the debauched Roman empire, just like He did in overcoming the barbarians, just like He has done in so many missionary lands.

As we come to present ourselves as gifts before the altar, let us open ourselves to the help He will give us so that we will not return evil for the evil we will suffer, or insult for insult, but on the contrary return a blessing — the blessing of God living within us — because it is to this we are called.

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

St. Bonaventure (1221–1274) was born with the name Giovanni in Tuscany, Italy. As a child he became seriously ill and was in danger of death until his mother brought him to St. Francis of Assisi, who was then living in the region as a mendicant friar. It is said that St. Francis healed the child and afterward exclaimed, "O buona ventura (O good fortune)!" when he prophetically perceived how great the child would one day become, and this is how he began to be called Bonaventure. He joined the Franciscan order at the age of 22 and went on to study theology at the University of Paris, where he became famous friends with the Dominican friar St. Thomas Aquinas. The two friends graduated together, each insisting that the other be the first to receive honors. St. Bonaventure is regarded as one of the great philosophers and theologians of the Middle Ages, earning the name "Seraphic Doctor." In addition to his many writings, including a Life of St. Francis of Assisi, he was elected to serve as head of his order, and was appointed a cardinal-bishop by the Holy Father. St. Bonaventure died while assisting at the Second Council of Lyons, which worked for the reunification of the Catholic Church and Eastern Orthodox churches.

Commemoration of Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Saturday, July 16, 9:00 a.m. Mass

THE BROWN SCAPULAR
DON'T MISS THIS POWERFUL SACRAMENTAL!

You may receive the Brown Scapular, the Mantle of Our Lady on Saturday, July 16. All those who Wish to be enrolled, please be in the front pews immediately following the 9:00 a.m. Mass

WEAR YOUR BROWN SCAPULAR!

"Take, beloved son this scapular as a badge of my confraternity and a special sign of grace; whoever dies in this garment, will not suffer everlasting fire. It is the sign of salvation, a safeguard in dangers, and a pledge of peace and of the covenant." (The Mother of God to St. Simon Stock)

"As a tender mother, I will descend into Purgatory on the Saturday after their death and will deliver them and bring them to the holy mountain, into the happy sojourn of life everlasting."

(Words of the Blessed Mother to Pope John XXII)

The Conditions, expressing the special trust you place into the Blessed Virgin Mary, are:

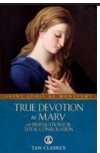

1. Be enrolled or vested with the Brown Scapular by any Roman Catholic Priest.
2. Wear the Scapular in good faith.
3. Be chaste. (according to your state in life)
4. Recite daily the Little Hours of the Blessed Virgin or (in addition to the commanded days), abstain from meat on all Wednesdays and Saturdays of the year. (except when Christmas falls on one of these days)

N.B. The Priest commonly commutes the fourth condition into another pious work

(e. g. Recite 3 Hail Mary's in Honor of Mary's Immaculate Conception).

After your enrollment you become a member of the spiritual family of Carmel (Confraternity of the Brown Scapular) and therefore share into the prayers and spiritual treasures of the order. A common Question; After being enrolled, do subsequent Scapulars need to be blessed? No...subsequent Scapulars need not be blessed as the blessing and imposition are attached to the wearer for life.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel...Pray for us.

The tasks are numerous, from helping out at the front desk, making sure clients have clothing, formula, and diapers, recording all statistics, being a mentor, helping out with the website, designing brochures, computer savvy tech support, Center cleaners, clothing organizers, and spiritual warriors.

The opportunity given to us by the grace of God with the fall of Roe v Wade must be met with more workers in the pro-life and pro-family vineyard. If you'd like to help promote the culture of life, helping the many women and children in Green Bay and surrounding area in a very definite charitable and Catholic manner, please contact Ann Shibley, 920-532-4032 to begin a discussion on where your talents and dedication can be put to the best possible use in this historic time.
