BEWARE OF FALSE PROPHETS

Beware of false prophets. Become true prophets.

Today is a day on which the Lord is calling us to ask above all else, whether our lives are true or false representations of Him, whether we're bearing good fruit that is giving glory to our Father in heaven. The Lord, who today calls us to be good trees, seek prayerfully the will of God and then, in accordance with His grace, do it, is prepared to give us all the help He knows we need.

He calls us to be "slaves of God" with willing hearts, bearing the fruit of the Holy Ghost so that others, when they think of us, see us resemble Christ's and Mary's and the saints' love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

And if we sense that with regard to this divine summons, our spirit is willing but our flesh is weak, Jesus seeks to strengthen us. He comes as the Vine to attach us anew to Him as branches, promising us that if we remain in Him, and He in us, we will bear fruit that will last into eternity. This is our faith. This is the faith of the Catholic Church.

How proud we are to profess it, inside Church and out, in Christ our Lord!

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

St. Martha (1st c.) was a pious Jewish woman from Bethany near Jerusalem. She was a close friend of Jesus during his earthly ministry, as was her brother, St. Lazarus, and her sister, St. Mary of Bethany (St. Mary Magdalene - separate feast day on July 22nd). The Gospels tell us that "Jesus loved Martha, and her sister Mary and Lazarus." Martha would serve the Lord faithfully when he was a guest in her home, once busying herself so much with her work that she neglected to spend time enjoying his presence, for which she earned a gentle rebuke from Our Lord. Martha had great faith in Christ, especially evidenced in her belief that he could raise her brother Lazarus from the dead. In the Gospels we read that St. Martha testified that Jesus was the Son of God even before his Passion and Resurrection. According to tradition, after the Ascension of Jesus into heaven, St. Martha gathered a group of women together to live, pray, and do penance in common, one of the early Christian houses of consecrated women. St. Martha is the patron of servers, maids, butlers, servants, single laywomen, homemakers, housewives, and cooks. Together, these siblings share a feast day on July 29th.

CANON'S ANNUAL AUGUST TRIP DATES

My yearly trip home to France and the required Chapter Meeting in Gricigliano means that I will be absent from the rectory from: August 2 through September 2.

Please contact me immediately if some special circumstances will arise for you during August that need attention. Otherwise, the parish looks forward to greeting the usual substitute priests who have so graciously and kindly agreed to provide the Latin Mass for the Oratory during this month away.

Please let me know if you need something before I leave.

God Bless you all.

St. Anne

Mother of the Virgin, Grandmother of the Savior
Tuesday, July 26
6:00 p.m. Mass

St. Anne and St. Joachim (1st c. B.C.) are the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the maternal grandparents of Jesus. Their names have been preserved in Church tradition since the second century, although little is known of their lives. It is believed that St. Joachim and St. Anne, although wealthy, lived a devout and simple life of voluntary poverty, chastity, and generosity to the poor.

According to legend, after long years of suffering from infertility and praying for a child, Joachim and Anne were each separately visited by an angel in their old age, who announced that they would give birth to a very special child. Their moment of joy at this happy news is depicted with their embrace and kiss at the Golden Gate in Jerusalem. It was from their holy and chaste marriage that the Immaculate Conception was brought into the world.

According to tradition, when the Child Mary was three years old, they dedicated her to God and presented her to live in the Jerusalem temple until the time of her betrothal to St. Joseph. St. Anne is the patroness of unmarried women, wives, expectant mothers, pregnancy, women in labor, grandmothers, childless couples, and against poverty and sterility. Women praying to meet their future spouse often turn to St. Anne. Her feast day is July 26.
