Mercy and Justice

There are two instances recorded in the Gospels where Jesus is said to have wept.

The one occurred when He heard that His friend Lazarus died. The other is in the incident recorded today. We know that weeping or crying is a very human reaction usually to a sad situation. It generally indicates a condition of helplessness. This is especially true when we weep at losing someone through death.

Because of His divine knowledge, Jesus knew the future, and He knew how His own people were going to reject Him.

We ought to be impressed with God's justice. It will bring us our just reward.

God is also merciful. And that mercy ought to inspire our love of Him.

Let's not lose heart despite our difficulties. May we recognize "the time of our visitation."

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Friday, August 12 - 6:00 p.m. Mass

St. Clare (1194–1253) was born in Assisi, Italy, to an aristocratic family, the daughter of a wealthy count. From childhood she was pious after the example of her mother, and as she grew up her longing for God increased. When she was eighteen she heard St. Francis of Assisi preach a Lenten mission in the local church. His holy example kindled her desire to renounce the world and follow Christ. She secretly begged Francis to help her live as he did, in simplicity according to the Gospel. St. Francis agreed. On Palm Sunday, Clare attended High Mass in all her finery for the final time. There she received a mystical experience which confirmed her desire to renounce the world and follow Christ after the example of St. Francis. That same night she secretly fled her father's house, along with two companions, to a chapel where St. Francis awaited her with his friars. She exchanged her fine clothes for a rough tunic and veil, and had her hair cut off. Francis placed Clare for a time with Benedictine nuns to escape the wrath of her family. She was soon joined by her sister, Agnes, and other young women whom St. Francis inspired. He permanently housed the women, with Clare as abbess, in the Church of San Damiano outside Assisi. This became the first foundation of the Poor Clare nuns. St. Clare lived there for the next forty years in prayer, penance, and fasting. She is the patroness of eyes and eye diseases, the telephone, and television.

Fatima and the Immaculate Heart of Mary
The Five First Saturdays Devotion

The devotion of the Five First Saturdays, comes to us straight from heaven!

In 1917 The Blessed Mother appeared six times to three little shepherds, Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta at Fatima, Portugal. She asked for conversion of life and the recitation of the Rosary so the world could have peace.

In the second apparition of Fatima, Our Lady showed the seers, Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta, her heart encircled by thorns. Later, on December 10, 1925, in a private apparition to Sister Lucia, she asked for the devotion of reparation of the Five First Saturdays.

The Blessed Mother appeared alongside the Child Jesus who stood over a luminous cloud. Our Lady rested one hand on the Child's shoulder while she held on the other hand a heart pierced with thorns.

The Child said, "Have pity on the Heart of your Most Holy Mother which is covered with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment with no one to extract them with an act of reparation."

Our Lady expressed her request in the following words;

"See, my daughter, My Heart surrounded with thorns with which ungrateful men pierce me at every moment with blasphemies and ingratitude. You, at least, make sure to console me and announce that all those who for five months, on the first Saturdays, go to Confession, receive Communion, say five decades of the Rosary and keep me company for 15 minutes meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary, with the purpose of making reparation to Me, I promise to assist them at the hour of death with all the graces necessary for the salvation of their souls."
