Wisely going to Jesus like the Royal Official

What do we learn from this scene that can help us make the most of our opportunity of our life, of our opportunity to grow in and live by faith?

I think it's this: we meet the same Jesus here that the Royal Official met in Cana. Like him, we bring to Him a request for someone who needs to be healed — not just our family members and friends, our country and others in need of prayers, but first and foremost ourselves.

With the Centurion's own words we pray, "Domine, non sum dignus," "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed." And Jesus gives us a gift greater than the healing of the Centurion's son; the gift of Himself. And He wants, as with the Centurion and his family, to give us the grace, too, of a huge upgrade in our faith. But faith must precede that miracle. We have to ask for it.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

October - The Month of the Holy Rosary

POPE
SAINT
EVARISTUS
PRAY FOR US

Wednesday, October 26 8:00 a.m. Mass

St. Evaristus was the son of a Greek Jew, originally from Bethlehem, and was the sixth Pope of the Catholic Church. He is traditionally considered a martyr, but there is no documentation of the event. He is buried in the Vatican, near Saint Peter.

Saint Evaristus succeeded Saint Anacletus as pope. The text of the Liber Pontificalis, says of him:

“Evaristus, born in Greece of a Jewish father named Juda, originally from the city of Bethlehem, reigned for thirteen years, six months and two days, under the reigns of Domitian, Nerva and Trajan, from the Consulate of Valens and Veter (96) until that of Gallus and Bradua (108). This pontiff divided among the priests the titles of the city of Rome. By a constitution he established seven deacons who were to assist the bishop and serve as authentic witnesses for him. During the three ordinations which he conducted in the month of December, he promoted six priests, two deacons and five bishops, destined for various churches. Evaristus received the crown of martyrdom. He was buried near the body of Blessed Peter in the Vatican, on the sixth day of the Calends of November (October 25, 108). The episcopal throne remained vacant for nineteen days.”

Pope Saint Evaristus is assumed to have given his life by martyrdom at the same time as St. Ignatius of Antioch. He is often represented with a sword because he was decapitated, or with a crib, because it is believed that he was born in Bethlehem, from which his father emigrated.
