INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

“Be of good heart, thy faith has made thee whole.”

Have we unwittingly put any limits on what we think God can do in our life?

This sick woman had been suffering for twelve years. It must have seemed like an eternity for her. But she didn't give up hope. Have we?

You are our hope, Lord. We place our sufferings at Your feet.

Let us hear Your words of encouragement; let us feel Your saving power. With the joy of Your heart, expand our hearts.

We believe in You, Lord. We believe in Your Catholic Church. Give us what we ask of You, Lord, and then ask what You will...

Lord, we know that no matter how bad things look, You are still at our side. We know that even when we can see only darkness with our reason, Your light shines through our faith. Yet, in times of trouble, it is so hard to see Your light. Lord Jesus, increase our faith.

Teach us to see all things as You see them, and to see You in all things.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

SAINT GERTRUDE
THE GREAT
PRAY FOR US

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

St. Gertrude the Great
Wed., Nov. 16 - 8:00 a.m. & 6:00 p.m. Mass

St. Gertrude the Great (1256-1302), also known as Gertrude of Helfta, was born on the feast of Epiphany in Thuringia (modern Germany). She was sent to be educated at the Benedictine monastery in Helfta at the age of four or five, possibly as an orphan or as a child dedicated to God by her parents. She proved to be an extremely bright and determined student who became engrossed in her secular studies, but was negligent of her prayer life. She remained in the monastery and made her profession as a nun. At the age of 26 she entered a time of spiritual crisis, after which she began to receive visions of Christ who chastised her for not leaving room for God in her academic pursuits. This caused Gertrude to abandon her secular studies in total devotion to Sacred Scripture and the works of the Church Fathers. These theological studies, along with continued visions and messages from Jesus, became the basis of her work as one of the great writers and mystics of the 13th century. St. Gertrude had a lasting impact on the Church in an age where academic and religious literature was dominated by men, and she is the only female saint to earn the title "The Great." She was one of the early saints who, along with her companion in the monastery, St. Mechtilde of Hackeborn, spread devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. St. Teresa of Avila chose St. Gertrude the Great, the patron saint of nuns, as her model and guide.

 Presentation on our African Missions
Tuesday, November 22 - 6:00 p.m. Mass

On Tuesday, November 22, we shall be honored by the visit of Canon Alexis Rouquayrol, director of St. Therese Mission, founded by Canon Fragelli, in the diocese of Mouila, Gabon. He looks forward to sharing with you the challenges and adventures of serving as a priest in equatorial Africa along with his efforts to maintain our school there. Please join in giving him a warm Green Bay welcome!

*V. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
R. And let the perpetual light shine upon them.
And may the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.*

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF THE PRIESTHOOD

Virgin Mary, Mother of Christ-Priest, Mother of all the priests of the whole world, you have a particular love for priests, because they are the living images of your unique Son.

You helped Jesus throughout your life on earth, and you help him still in Heaven.

We implore you: Pray for priests!
"Pray to the Father that he send laborers to the harvest"

Pray that we always have priests, who will give us the Sacraments, explain to us Christ's Gospel, and teach us to become true children of God!

Virgin Mary, ask God yourself for the priests of whom we have such need; and since your Heart has such power over him, Obtain for us, O Mary, priests that are saints!

Amen!

Calendar Raffle Update

There are still Calendar Raffles that have not been returned, either with the stubs and money, or separate unsold ones. ALL unsold Calendar Raffles must be returned before or on Sunday, November 27, so that they can be available for purchase after and between the Sunday Masses that day, in a limited quantity. These can be returned to Gary Dietzen, Kathy Kane, the parish office, or dropped off at the Scrip table prior to Nov. 27.

It is very important that we account for each and every Calendar Raffle. Unsold raffles are lost revenue for the Oratory. Every sale is $20 for the Restoration Project. So please, let's get all of the Calendar Raffles or completed stubs with the money returned as soon as possible. A very special thank you goes out to all who took Raffle tickets and sold them offsite to family and friends; may your dedication and work be justly rewarded. The support of all who participated in this annual fundraiser is very much appreciated. Thank you!
