INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Why You Must be Proud to be an American

When the pilgrims lowered the anchor in Plymouth harbor in December 1620, they were filled with hope. Their incessant prayers for a safe arrival had been heard. They had finally landed in the new world and were ready to begin a new life.

Of the 103 that disembarked, more than half would die before winter was over. Governor John Carver, their leader, succumbed quickly to fever. Ten of the seventeen husbands and fathers died. Those who avoided the grave remained in grave danger because of fevers, famine and freezing temperatures. Yet they didn't give up hope.

The fifty-one survivors easily could have looked at the previous eleven months as the worst year of their lives. They had buried almost as many bodies in the soil, after all, as bushels of food they had taken from the soil. The reason they were able to thank God so heartily, however, in spite of the suffering they had endured was because they believed those hardships and blessings were both part of God's providential care. No amount of personal suffering could shake their faith. No amount of hardship could rock their trust in a God whom they knew loved them and was looking over them. They convened full of gratitude because they realized they were on a pilgrimage not only to Plymouth but to Paradise. Everything — adverse or propitious, life and even death — was part of God's plans for them on their journey not merely to the new world but to a New World. That final destination, and their faith in God who awaited them were what gave meaning to all their sufferings and joys along the way. And it's what filled them with a spirit of gratitude.

Do we have that same spirit of Thanksgiving that marked the Pilgrims who survived? If this weren't a national holiday, would we on our own want to organize a big feast of our family members and friends just to thank God for everything over the course of the last year? Are we just going through a civic ritual involving turkey and gravy, stuffing and turnips, family and football, or do we approach this day with hearts and souls bursting with thanks to God and to others for all of the blessings we have received, including the crosses and hardships?

Thanksgiving, always and everywhere: our duty and salvation.

Have a happy Thanksgiving with your beloved! God bless you! God bless America!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

A Prayer for Our Country

An Act of Consecration to Mary Immaculate Patroness of the United States of America

(Proclaimed under this title in 1846)

Most Holy Trinity: Our Father in Heaven, who chose Mary as the fairest of your daughters; Holy Spirit, who chose Mary as your spouse; God the Son, who chose Mary as your Mother; in union with Mary, we adore your majesty and acknowledge your supreme eternal dominion and authority. Most Holy Trinity, we put the United States of America into the hands of Mary Immaculate in order that she may present the country to you. Through her we wish to thank you for the great resources of this land and for the freedom which has been its heritage. Through the intercession of Mary, have mercy on the Catholic Church in America. Grant us peace. Have mercy on our President and on all the officers of our government. Grant us a fruitful economy born of justice and charity. Have mercy on capital and industry and labor. Protect the family life of the nation. Guard the innocence of our children. Grant the precious gift of many religious vocations. Through the intercession of our Mother, have mercy on the sick, the poor, the tempted, sinners—on all who are in need. Mary, Immaculate Virgin, Our Mother, Patroness of our land, we praise you and honor you and give ourselves to you. Protect us from every harm. Pray for us, that acting always according to your will and the Will of your Divine Son, we may live and die pleasing to God.

SALES WILL BE HELD EVERY SUNDAY AT 9:00 A.M. IN NOVEMBER NEAR THE SCRIP TABLE UNLESS SOLD OUT!

Calendar Raffle Update

There are still Calendar Raffles that have not been returned, either with the stubs and money, or separate unsold ones. ALL unsold Calendar Raffles must be returned before or on Sunday, November 27, so that they can be available for purchase after and between the Sunday Masses that day, in a limited quantity. These can be returned to Gary Dietzen, Kathy Kane, the parish office, or dropped off at the Scrip table prior to Nov. 27.

It is very important that we account for each and every Calendar Raffle. Unsold raffles are lost revenue for the Oratory. Every sale is $20 for the Restoration Project. So please, let's get all of the Calendar Raffles or completed stubs with the money returned as soon as possible. A very special thank you goes out to all who took Raffle tickets and sold them offsite to family and friends; may your dedication and work be justly rewarded. The support of all who participated in this annual fundraiser is very much appreciated. Thank you!
