INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Let us keep vigilant.

Keeping vigil is filled with moments of peace and joy. It prevents us from falling asleep. So, there needs to be a good reason for a vigil. Suppose that we are expecting a visitor for whom it is worth waiting, a person of quality. For this, we will not hesitate to disrupt our daily routine, our schedule, our life.

This is why Advent is a vigil. We are preparing a place of honor for a guest for whom the feast is offered.

Is it true that Jesus Christ occupies the place of honor in my affairs? Certainly I cannot give Him all of my time, but I can give Him the best of my time! How much of this time do I reserve for Him? Do I know how to receive Him in and thru the sacraments?

When keeping vigil, we often sing to keep our eyes open: this is prayer.

We keep the fire going which gives light and heat: this is the Holy Eucharist.

When keeping vigil, we confide in Him and empty the depths of our soul: this is the sacrament of Penance.

To keep vigil does not mean to wait for a future which might not come. It is to live each moment as if it has already come. Keeping vigil during Advent is to invite Christ again as our favorite guest.

Advent is short and will pass quickly. That is why a Christian is like a quick strider. He knows how to use his time well, advancing along. To waste his time is to do nothing, or worse, to do worthless things. To do worthless things is to accord too much importance to little trifles, and to give too little to what has value.

Let's go ahead and have a blessed Advent!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

DECEMBER - MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Novena to the Immaculate Conception

November 29 - December 7

This Novena will be prayed from November 29 to December 7, eve of the feast of the Immaculate Conception after every Holy Mass.

You are invited to join in church or at home.

Pray Our Lady protects America from those who plot against our spiritual and material well-being, as we are consecrated as a nation to the Immaculate Conception.

A plenary indulgence can be gained under the usual conditions by all those who attend Holy Mass at an Institute's apostolate on December 8.

O most holy Virgin who wast pleasing to God and didst become His Mother. Immaculate in your body, in your soul, in your faith and in your love, we beseech thee to look graciously upon the wretched who implore thy powerful protection. The wicked serpent, against whom the primal curse was hurled, continues none the less to wage war and to lay snares for the unhappy children of Eve. Ah, do thou, our blessed Mother, our Queen and Advocate, who from the first instant of thy conception didst crush the head of our enemy, receive the prayers that we unite single-heartedly to thine and conjure thee to offer at the throne of God, that we may never fall into the snares that are laid for us, in such wise that we may all come to the haven of salvation; and in the midst of so many dangers may holy Church and the fellowship of Christians everywhere sing once more the hymn of deliverance, victory and peace. Amen.

Thou art all fair, O Mary. And the original stain is not in thee. Thou art the glory of Jerusalem. Thou art the joy of Israel. Thou art the honour of our people. Thou art the advocate of sinners. O Mary, virgin most prudent, mother most tender, pray for us. Intercede for us with Jesus Christ Our Lord.

V. In thy conception, O Virgin, thou wast immaculate.

R. Pray for us to the Father, Whose Son thou didst bring forth.

Let us pray.

O God who, by the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin, didst make her a worthy habitation for Thy Son, and didst, by His foreseen death, preserve her from all stain of sin; grant we beseech Thee, that through her intercession we may be cleansed from sin and come with pure hearts to Thee. Through the same Christ Our Lord. (Amen.)

Company of the Immaculate and St. Michael's Patrol COIN BOX COLLECTION FOR AFRICA | FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT- JANUARY 1

Dear parishioners of St. Patrick's Oratory,

"A pearl of faith in the middle of the African jungle." This accurately describes the St. Therese Mission of the Institute of Christ the King's African apostolate in Gabon, Africa. Many children travel far to attend the Mission's school of St. Francis de Sales. They are in great need of sponsors as many families cannot afford the tuition to attend this beautiful Catholic school run by our very own Canons of the Institute including Canon Alexis Rouquayrol, director of the St. Therese Mission. There is much need as more children continually show up at the school. The Mission must find a way to accept all of them by making the necessary improvements to the buildings and classrooms. This is at the heart of the St. Therese Mission - to bring faith and education to the people of this region.

This Advent season let us turn our hearts to those less fortunate than us. Though they are very far from our comfortable homes here in America, please remember to give to our fellow brothers and sisters. Please pick up a coin box at either entrance to help the Mission. Both children and adults are welcome to contribute to the Mission's needs. God bless you in your charity.
