ORATORY CLERGY

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

"Where are we?"

Jesus cures ten, but only one returns to give thanks. "Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? No one, it seems, has come back to give glory to God but this foreigner."

The teaching of Christ here is not about the healing of the flesh; it is of a far greater and more precious gift--the grace of God in faith in Christ Jesus.

God's gift of faith in the Son of Man is poured out freely for all, regardless of race. The working of His grace is seen here in the gratitude of the Samaritan.

He who was thought to be socially repulsive and an outcast even before he contracted leprosy, shows the dignity of faith in returning to give thanks to Christ. "Rise, and go your way, your faith has saved you."

How often do our prayers turn to the theme of thanksgiving to God? Or does our concern for present needs and wants cloud our remembrance of past gifts and blessings?

Have a Blessed Sunday!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

AUGUST - MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

THE BEHEADING OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

August 29th

Tuesday - 6:00 p.m. Mass

The Martyrdom of Saint John the Baptist (1st. century)

The drunken oath of a king with a shallow sense of honor, a seductive dance and the hateful heart of a queen combined to bring about the martyrdom of John the Baptist. The greatest of prophets suffered the fate of so many Old Testament prophets before him: rejection and martyrdom. The "voice crying in the desert" did not hesitate to accuse the guilty, did not hesitate to speak the truth. But why? What possesses a man that he would give up his very life?

This great religious reformer was sent by God to prepare the people for the Messiah. His vocation was one of selfless giving. The only power that he claimed was the Spirit of Yahweh. "I am baptizing you with water, for repentance, but the one who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: He shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire." (Matthew 3:11).

Scripture tells us that many people followed John looking to him for hope, perhaps in anticipation of some great messianic power. John never allowed himself the false honor of receiving these people for his own glory. He knew his calling was one of preparation. When the time came, he led his disciples to Jesus: "The next day John was there again with two of his disciples, and beholding Jesus walk by, he said: Behold the Lamb of God. And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus." (John 1:35-37).

It is John the Baptist who has pointed the way to Christ. John's life and death were a giving over of self for God and other people. His simple style of life was one of complete detachment from earthly possessions. His heart was centered on God and the call that he heard from the Spirit of God speaking to his heart. Confident of God's grace, he had the courage to speak words of condemnation, repentance, and salvation.

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

Living the Truth in Charity

Dear Faithful,

I am very excited to announce a new group pilgrimage, taking place in 2024 with the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest. Our friends at St. Charles Catholic Pilgrimages have organized an extraordinary two-part exploration of France to be led by our own Canon Benoît Jayr of St. Stanislaus Oratory in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. All members of our Institute family are invited to take advantage of one or both pilgrimage opportunities.

In the first pilgrimage opportunity, from May 15–20, pilgrims will participate in the historic Chartres Pentecost Pilgrimage. This walking pilgrimage is the largest annual traditional Catholic event in the world today, drawing more than 16,000 participants from all across the globe. Pilgrims set out on a three-day trek (with two nights camping), walking from the Church of Saint-Sulpice in Paris to Notre-Dame in Chartres.

In the second pilgrimage, from May 20–31, pilgrims will embark on a 12-day, faith-inspiring tour of the major shrines of France, beginning in Vers sur Launette near Paris with Holy Mass in the private chapel of the Institute's Sister Adorers of the Royal Heart of Jesus and concluding with a celebration dinner at Canon Jayr's family farm near Montauban in southwestern France. Highlights include:

- Daily Latin Mass with Canon Jayr
- Special visit to Le Barroux Abbey for sung High Mass
- Opportunities to pray in the presence of incorrupt saints such as St. Catherine Labouré, St. Vincent de Paul, St. Bernadette, and St. John Vianney
- A full day in Lourdes with a visit to the miraculous baths
- Visit to the tomb of St. Martin of Tours
- Visit to the Holy Face Oratory in Tours
- Mass at the Institute chapel in Toulouse
- Visit to Carcassonne Castle with time for shopping
- Visit to the tomb of St. Thomas Aquinas
- Dinner in Avignon, served with local wine
- Visit and dinner at the family farm of Canon Jayr

You can learn more about the three-day Chartres Pentecost Pilgrimage by contacting Mr. Lincoln Oro at lincoln.oro@sbcglobal.net. For more information and to register for the 12-day shrines of France pilgrimage, visit stcharlespilgrimages.com/jayr. Please note that there are limited spaces: to avoid disappointment, register early! Registration is on a first come, first served basis. For those of you who are able, I sincerely hope you will consider joining us on this once-in-a-lifetime journey of faith.

Faithfully yours,

Reverend Canon Matthew Talarico
U.S. Provincial Superior
