ORATORY CLERGY

The Reverend Canon Antoine Boucheron
Rector

INSTITUTE OF CHRIST THE KING SOVEREIGN PRIEST

IT IS SO MUCH MORE

You probably have noticed that the name of the couple being married at Cana is not mentioned. Pretty strange, isn't it? It means that the event that took place at this wedding was much more important than the banquet itself, that it was something beyond this particular couple. No names are used except the names of Mary and Jesus because this particular marriage sets the stage for what happens between the Son of God and all humanity.

The Son of God, of course, is Jesus. Humanity is represented first by the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is the first of all mankind to be saved by Jesus through her Immaculate Conception. The rest of humanity is represented by the others who receive Mary's instruction at the wedding: "Do whatever He tells you."

In Cana, God wants to join Himself permanently to humanity in love so this can symbolically be called a marriage. And since His greatest sacrificial love is expressed on Calvary, Calvary can be considered the height of the marital commitment. So what is happening at this wedding is much, much bigger than the marriage of one couple.

May we perceive the glory of Divine Love -- and give ourselves to it today-- more fully than ever.

Canon Antoine Boucheron

Chair of Unity Octave

Oration for the removal of schism

January 18 - January 25

From January 18 (Feast of the Chair of St. Peter in Rome) to January 25 (the Conversion of St. Paul) are the Octave of Prayers for the Unity of the Church. This prayer is said once-a-day during this Octave.

Ant. That they all may be one, as Thou, Father, in me and I in Thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent me.

V. I say to thee, that thou art Peter,

R. And upon this rock I will build my Church.

Let us pray:

Lord Jesus Christ, Who didst say to thine Apostles: peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, look not upon my sins, but upon the faith of Thy Church; and vouchsafe unto her that peace and unity which is agreeable to Thy will: Who livest and reignest God forever and ever. Amen.

Intentions of the Octave

- January 18th: The union of all Christians in the one true Faith and in the Church;
- January 19th: The return of separated Eastern Christians to communion with the Holy See;
- January 20th: The reconciliation of Anglicans with the Holy See;
- January 21st: The reconciliation of European Protestants with the Holy See;
- January 22nd: That American Christians become one in union with the Chair of Peter;
- January 23rd: The restoration of lapsed Catholics to the sacramental life of the Church;
- January 24th: That the Jewish people come into their inheritance in Jesus Christ;
- January 25th: The missionary extension of Christ's kingdom throughout the world.

Chair of St. Peter in Rome

Thursday, January 18 - 8:00 a.m. Mass

Chair of St. Peter in Rome is celebrated on January 18 in recognition of the day when Peter is said to have held his first service with the Roman faithful. Since the Middle Ages, the feast of the Chair of St. Peter in Antioch has been observed on February 22—traditionally considered the anniversary of Peter's proclamation of Jesus as Messiah.

The feast recalls Peter's authority as the head of the Apostles, as well as the authority of all those who succeed Peter. In early Christian times, bishops had official chairs on which they sat as they preached and taught their people. Over time, the chair of a bishop came to be viewed as a symbol of his authority and has been regarded with great respect.

Jesus told Peter that he was the "rock" upon which He would build his church, and that Peter would be given "the keys of the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 16:18-19). Consequently, to Peter and his successors is accorded a primacy over the church. The Chair of St. Peter has come to represent the pope's special calling to teach and serve the people of God.

As successors to Peter and the Apostles, our church leaders are called to tend the flock of God willingly and humbly. As Jesus prayed for Peter, let us pray for our pope and for all the bishops, that the Lord would continue to guide the church by his Spirit.
