TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
(Mass Propers available in the Parish Bulletin)

Dear faithful,

On this Tenth Sunday after Pentecost, Holy Mother Church's insistence on the primordial role of humility in our relationship with God continues in Our Lord's parable of the Pharisee and the publican. The Pharisee's prayer, puffed up with pride as he recounts before God all his supposed accomplishments and virtues, contrasts strikingly with the prayer and demeanor of the publican, who will not even dare to look up to heaven on account of his sense of guilt for his sins.

As Our Lord tells us, it is indeed the publican who goes away justified. His prayer is not only humble, but also contrite. He strikes his breast in pained remembrance of a heart that once chose created goods as more precious than man's Supreme Good – God alone. His prayer is also full of confidence. His simple words, "O God, be merciful to me a sinner" shows his earnestness, it is clear that he believes these words of the Psalmist: "God will not despise a contrite and humble heart" (Ps. 50:19).

A Requiem Mass is being planned for Rosita Foley here at St. Margaret Mary's at 11 am on Wednesday, August 24, to be followed by the funeral at St. Joseph's Cemetery in San Pablo. Please contact me for more information.

There has been, sadly, another death in our Oakland Apostolate family. John Dymond passed away this past Tuesday, August 9, surrounded by his family and fortified with the Sacraments. Please contact me for information about the Requiem Mass and funeral arrangements. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

We welcome back Father Glenn Naguit, the incoming Pastor of St. Margaret Mary Church, who will arrive this Monday, August 15. Please note that this Monday is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a first class Feast. We will celebrate the External Solemnity of this feast next Sunday, August 21.

There will not be a Sursum Corda young adult event this month. Sursum Corda will return in September under the usual format of the Rosary, a talk followed by dinner, and the chanted Office of Compline to conclude the evening. Please contact Noe Perez for more information: n_perez3@u.pacific.edu.

There will be a training session for altar servers this Sunday from 8 am to 9 am in Kozina Hall. This training is necessary for new recruits to get off to a good start at serving and to maintain our veteran servers' skill level. Please rsvp to Joseph Burk: josephburk94@gmail.com.

I leave this weekend for two weeks of vacation in Virginia with my family and friends, and then to go for a week to the Institute's seminary, Gricigliano, in Italy. I will be back for both Sunday Masses at St. Margaret Mary's on September 4.

Please check the Liturgical Calendar in the bulletin for information regarding my priestly replacements during my vacation. Canon Ross Bourgeois, currently serving at our apostolate in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, will arrive this Tuesday and stay through Saturday. Some of you may remember Canon

Assumption of Mary, by Guido Reni, 1642

Bourgeois from his brief time here as a deacon a few years ago. Welcome back, Canon! Like myself, Canon Bourgeois began his priesthood not in his native country, the United States.

Whereas I spent the first two years of my priestly ministry at the Institute's apostolate in Limerick, Ireland however, Canon Bourgeois was assigned to the Convent of the Sisters Adorers in Germany, Maria-Engelport ("Mary, Gate of the Angels"). Are there any German speakers among us? You could brush up on your conversational skills with Canon. In case of sacramental emergencies, you can reach him at: (773) 484-3662. Canon Luke Zignego will be coming for several days the week after.

Wishing you a blessed Sunday,
Canon Norman
