Feast of St. Francis de Sales

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt lose its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is good for nothing any more but to be cast out, and to be trodden on by men. You are the light of the world. A city seated on a mountain cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel but upon a candlestick, that it may shine to all that are in the house. So let your light shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father, who is in heaven. Do not think that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For amen I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall not pass of the law till all be fulfilled. He therefore that shall break one of these least commandments, and shall so teach men, shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but he that shall do and teach, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

— From Today's Gospel

The Blessing of Candles

According to the Roman Missal, the celebrant, in stole and cope of violet, standing at the epistle side of the altar, blesses the candles (which traditionally are of beeswax). Having sung or recited the five orations prescribed, he sprinkles and incenses the candles. Then he distributes them to the clergy and laity while the choir sings the canticle of Simeon, “Nunc dimittis...” The antiphon “Lumen ad revelationem gentium et gloriam plebis tuae Israel” (“A light to the revelation of the Gentiles and the glory of thy people Israel”) is repeated after every verse, according to the early Christian practice imitating the ancient Hebrew custom of singing the antiphons.

Candlemas, Thursday, February 2

Solemn High Mass at 6:30p.m. at St. Joseph Church, 582 Hope Street in Mountain View. The entrance to the free underground parking garage is found on Church St. between the church and Wells Fargo Bank .

Please note: There is also a Low Mass at noon on Winchester.

Francis de Sales, Principal Patron Saint of the Institute of Christ the King

Through the life of St. Francis de Sales, Bishop, Doctor of the Church, founder of a religious order, and mystic, we see the quintessential qualities of a bishop, as well as how much a holy bishop can accomplish through his sacred ministry. St. Francis de Sales was bishop of Geneva, Switzerland, a bastion of Protestantism, Calvin having conquered the whole region. The saintly bishop was goaded on through many hardships by a vivid awareness of his responsibilities as shepherd of those souls whom God had entrusted to his care. Through his zeal, his loving kindness, and his wisdom he was able to persevere through many adversities to bring an estimated forty-thousand back to the Catholic Faith. May St. Francis de Sales intercede for us as we continue to labor in the midst of a culture of death.

St Francis de Sales with St. John Bosco who chose him as patron of the Salesian order.
