Septuagesima

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a householder, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing in the marketplace idle, and he said to them: Go you also into my vineyard, and I will give you what shall be just. And they went their way. And again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did in like manner. But about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing, and he saith to them: Why stand you there all the day idle? They said to him: Because no man has hired us. He saith to them: Go you also into my vineyard. And when evening was come, the Lord of the vineyard saith to the steward: Call the laborers and pay them their hire, beginning from the last even to the first. When therefore they were come, that came about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first also came, they thought that they should receive more: and they also received every man a penny. And receiving it they murmured against the master of the house, saying: These last have worked but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us that have borne the burden of the day and the heats. But he answering one of them, said: Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst thou not agree with me for a penny? Take what is thine, and go thy way: I will also give to this last even as to thee. Or, is it not lawful for me to do what I will? Is thy eye evil, because I am good? So shall the last be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen.

Liturgical Note

Septuagesimatide, or pre-Lent, is the name given to the two-and-one-half weeks, with its three consecutive Sundays, preceding Ash Wednesday. It is named after the first of these, Septuagesima Sunday, which occurs roughly seventy days before Easter (septuagesima is Latin for "seventieth"). Sexagesima ("sixtieth") comes next, followed by Quinquagesima ("fiftieth") Sunday, which is the Sunday before Ash Wednesday.

U.S. Provincial Appeal “Many Apostolates, One Mission”

Do you value what the Institute of Christ the King is doing in the Church today?

This Lent, consider making a sacrifice of $80, just two dollars a day during these forty days to help the Institute continue its work for the salvation of souls.

On Sunday, February 26, there will be a special second collection for this appeal to help the Institute grow in the USA.

This Lent, make a difference in the Church today by donating to the Institute apostolates working to restore Catholic life and culture in America.

Thank you for your generous support! May Christ our King reward you eternally.

Women's Group meeting Saturday, February 18th

Ladies of the Oratory, please join us Saturday, February 18th after the 9:00 a.m. Mass for our regular Women's Group meeting. It will be a time to get to know one another and discuss ways in which we can best support the needs of the Oratory with our time and talents. Remembering that "many hands make light work," the goal is for several of us ladies to take on small tasks, so as not one person is driven to burn-out. Canon will be there to guide our discussion and lead us in prayer. Refreshments will be served.
