Sexagesima

At that time, when a very great multitude was gathered together, and hastened out of the cities unto Jesus, He spoke by a similitude: The sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. And other some fell upon a rock: and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other some fell among thorns, and the thorns growing up with it, choked it. And other some fell upon good ground: and being sprung up yielded fruit a hundredfold. Saying these things He cried out: He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And His disciples asked Him what this parable might be. To whom He said: To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to the rest in parables: that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. And they by the wayside are they that hear: then the devil cometh and taketh the word out of their heart, lest believing they should be saved. Now they upon the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no roots: for they believe for a while, and in time of temptation they fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they who have heard and, going their way, are choked with the cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and yield no fruit. But that on the good ground are they who in a good and perfect heart, hearing the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit in patience.

Women's Group meeting Saturday, February 18th

Ladies of the Oratory, please join us Saturday, February 18th after the 9:00 a.m. Mass for our regular Women's Group meeting. It will be a time to get to know one another and discuss ways in which we can best support the needs of the Oratory with our time and talents. Remembering that "many hands make light work," the goal is for several of us ladies to take on small tasks, so as not one person is driven to burn-out. Canon will be there to guide our discussion and lead us in prayer. Refreshments will be served.
