Seventh Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not every one that saith to Me: Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Dear Faithful of the IHM Oratory,

It has been about a month since Abbe Morin went back to seminary in June. I am grateful to our Altar servers who committed to serving at a daily mass during that time. There has not been a day when no altar server showed up at mass this year. It is a great comfort to see their fidelity!

Tuesday, Abbe Robert Keller, originally of Ohio, arrived at San Jose. He has just completed his first year of seminary, receiving his cassock and being tonsured at the seminary in Florence, Italy, in the beginning of July. He will stay with us until August 11.

Abbe Keller told me that there are 24 other seminarians who received cassock with him this year. Among them there are many Americans and Frenchmen but also men from such countries as Italy, England, Netherlands, Romania, Guatemala. When I received a cassock in 2002, there were only five first-year seminarians. The growth in vocations is quite evident and impressive. This is a sure sign that God never abandons His Church. Let us continue to trust in the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, for in the end her Immaculate Heart will triumph.
