Eighth Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods; and he called him and said to him: How is it that I hear this of thee: give an account of thy stewardship, for now thou canst be steward no longer. And the steward said within himself: What shall I do, because my lord taketh away from me the stewardship? To dig I am not able: to beg I am ashamed. I know what I will do, that when I shall be put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. Therefore calling together every one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first: How much dost thou owe my lord? But he said: A hundred barrels of oil. And he said to him: Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then he said to another: And how much dost thou owe? Who said: A hundred quarters of wheat. He said to him: Take thy bill and write eighty. And the lord commended the unjust steward, for as much as he had done wisely: for the children of this world are wiser in their generation than the children of light. And I say to you: Make unto you friends of the mammon of iniquity, that when you shall fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.

Dear Faithful of the IHM Oratory,

This week we hold the summer camp for fathers and their sons. This is a joint event with the apostolate of the Institute in Oakland. There will be about fifty people at the camp. For three days we will enjoy the beautiful outdoors of the Saratoga hills. The boys will try to emulate their colleagues in virtue and devotion through diverse activities such as daily Mass, rosary processions, exploration of nature, common meals, etc. The camp site is located only about ten miles from the chapel, but it is situated deep in the woods. One feels quite outside of the noise of the world. I personally enjoy the silence of nature during the night. It soothes my spirit.

May God continue to guide and protect our children and give them strength and wisdom to stand firm in these confusing times.

Canon Raphael Ueda

During the Summer...

Our catechetical and formation activities (Young Family Group meetings, Sursum Corda meetings, Sacred Heart Society meetings, and catechism classes for children and teenagers) are suspended. Meetings will resume in September.

The IHM Choir Needs Your Voice!

The choir is looking to expand to twenty singers. Rehearsals are Thursday evenings from 7:30 until 9:00 here at the Oratory and Sunday mornings from 10:00 until 11:00. If you are interested, please contact the choirmaster.

Summer Events with the IHM Oratory

August 19, Oratory Picnic

Come join us for a pleasant day at Hellyer County Park, 985 Hellyer Avenue in San Jose. Only $5 per person or $20 per family. Bring a side dish to share.

Blessing of Religious Items

If you have images, medals, or statues, etc., to be blessed, please bring them on the last Sunday of the month, July 30th. Canon will bless them after the 11:15a.m. Mass. Please note that religious items from the vestibule after Mass on Sundays are not yet blessed.

First Mass of a Newly Ordained Priest

Canon Jacob Wells, of San Francisco, Calif., was ordained by Cardinal Raymond Burke at the Church of St. Michael and Gaetano in April of 2023. He will offer his First Mass at the IHM Oratory today, Sunday, July 23, at 11:15a.m. A plenary indulgence is attached to attending a First Mass and receiving the blessing of a newly ordained priest.

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, our High Priest, hear my humble prayer on behalf of Thy priests. Give them a deep faith, a bright and firm hope, and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of their priestly life. In their loneliness, comfort them. In their sorrows, strengthen them. In their frustration, point out to them that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show them that they are needed by the Church, that they are needed by souls; they are needed for the work of redemption.
