Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, Jesus went into a city called Naim; and there went with Him His disciples, and a great multitude. And when He came nigh to the city, behold a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and much people of the city were with her. And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her, and said to her: Weep not. And He came near and touched the bier. And they that carried it stood still. And He said: Young man, I say to thee, Arise: and he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And He delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on them all: and they glorified God, saying: A great prophet is risen up amongst us, and God hath visited His people.

Dear Faithful,

I am very grateful that I am to continue to serve you at the IHM Oratory in the Diocese of San Jose for another year. It has been nine years since I was assigned here in 2014. Time is flying by quickly. We have been hoping to have another priest, as the work for the Oratory has been increasing; however, we will need to wait as the Institute has opened a few new apostolates in the U.S. province this year. Without doubt, the Church is in crisis, but the Institute is very grateful to have new apostolates to serve.

This year there are about 25 new first-year seminarians in Florence, Italy, and another 25 candidates around the world who will be preparing to join the seminary after a year of discernment. Remember that the founder of the Catholic religion is Jesus Christ who was crucified, and all of the apostles, except St. John, left him at the crucial moment. Since then, throughout ages of challenges and difficulties, the Catholic Church has never ceased to exist. This is clear evidence of the divine origin of the Catholic Church.

May Our Lord Jesus Christ continue to guide us in these perilous times.
