Sixteenth Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, when Jesus went into the house of one of the chief of the Pharisees, on the Sabbath-day to eat bread, they watched Him. And behold, there was a certain man before Him that had dropsy: and Jesus answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying: Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath-day? But they held their peace: but He taking him, healed him, and sent him away. And answering them, He said: Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit, and will not immediately draw him out on the Sabbath-day? And they could not answer

Him these things. And He spoke a parable also to them: When thou art invited to a wedding, sit not down in the first place, lest perhaps one more honourable than thou be invited by him; and he that invited thee and him, come and say to thee: Give this man place; and then thou begin with shame to take the lowest place. But when thou art invited, go sit down in the lowest place: that when he who invited thee cometh, he may say to thee: Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory before them that sit at table with thee: because every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

The Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a shorter form of the Divine Office in honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It has long been the Church's daily liturgical prayer to Our Lady, and these hours of praise have been used by Priests, religious and the laity throughout the centuries. Lay people used to flock to the great Cathedrals to publicly recite The Little Office during the Middle Ages, and during the great persecution, when the practice of the Catholic Faith was illegal in Great Britain, Bishop Challoner commended The Little Office to his flock.

All Catholics are called to a consistent prayer life. For those who do not feel called to recite the Divine Office, but still wish to participate in the liturgical prayer of the Church, or for those who have a particular devotion to the Holy Mother of God, there is no finer form of prayer than the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary is now Available for $20, a $15 discount.

Second Annual Bocce Ball Fundraiser
Saturday, September 30th - 5:00-9:00 p.m.
St. Frances Cabrini Church Grounds

Next Sunday, September 24...

...after each Mass, the Building Committee will provide an update of our fundraising progress and the plan as we move forward to the second year of our efforts to acquire a permanent home. This goal may seem daunting, but God sees our efforts and will make them fruitful in His good time. Thank you for your prayer, your time, and your financial consideration.

Light refreshment will be provided by the Oratory. Come and enjoy this get-together!

The photo is a little chapel, still existent on St. Francis Cabrini parish grounds. It was used until the current church was built. Pray and hope that our little oratory is also on the same track of having a suitable church in due time.

St. Therese of the Child Jesus and of the Holy Face

Our dear Little Saint took the world by storm and drew unto herself clients from all walks of life. This Little Flower receives petitions in all forms and constantly pours down from heaven her promised

"shower of roses." Saint Therese, who spent her whole life without leaving her own corner of France, is Patroness of the Missions. Acquainted early with the work of the missions, she made them the object of her prayers and sacrifices. Her prophetic words of distinct assurance that she uttered: "I will spend my heaven doing good upon earth. I shall let fall from heaven a shower of roses. My work begins after death," are manifestly being fulfilled.
