Nineteenth Sunday After Pentecost

And Jesus answering, spoke again in parables to them, saying: The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who made a marriage for his son. And he sent his servants, to call them that were invited to the marriage; and they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying: Tell them that were invited: Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my beeves and fatings are killed, and all things are ready: come ye to the marriage. But they neglected, and went their ways, one to his farm, and another to his merchandise; and the rest laid hands on his servants, and having treated them contumeliously, put them to death. But when the king had heard of it, he was angry; and sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he saith to his servants: The marriage indeed is ready; but they that were invited were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways; and as many as you shall find, call to the marriage. And his servants going forth into the ways, gathered together all that they found, both bad and good: and the marriage was filled with guests. And the king went in to see the guests; and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment. And he saith to him: Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? But he was silent. Then the king said to the waiters: Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

November is the Month of the Poor Souls

As we approach the month of November, please submit the names of your departed family and friends to be placed by the Altar. It is a mark of gratitude to pray for all those who helped us in the past. We confidently believe that the prayers at the Altar are most profitable for them and the most effective means of releasing the souls of the faithful departed from their torments in Purgatory. Any voluntary donation in honor of the Poor Souls will be used to purchase liturgical items for our Oratory.

Our Guardian Angels

St. Bernard exhorts us: My brothers, make the holy angels your friends. Give them joy by having confidential recourse to them, and honor them by your prayers, for they are ever near, to comfort and protect you. He also reminds us: Howsoever weak we may be, howsoever sad our condition and howsoever great the dangers which surround us, beneath the protection of such guardians, we have nothing to fear! Whenever afflictions or temptations frighten you, implore the aid of him who watches over you, who leads you, who succors you in all your necessities.
