Twentieth Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, there was a certain ruler whose son was sick at Capharnaum. He having heard that Jesus was come from Judaea into Galilee, went to Him, and prayed Him to come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said to him: Unless you see signs and wonders, you believe not. The ruler saith to Him: Lord, come down before my son die. Jesus saith to him: Go thy way, thy son liveth. The man believeth the word which Jesus said to him, and went his way. And as he was going down, his servants met him, and they brought word, saying, that his son lived. He asked therefore of them the hour wherein he grew better. And they said to him: Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. The father therefore knew that it was at the same hour that Jesus said to him: Thy son liveth; and himself believed, and his whole house.

Bishop O'Dowd Council Honors Families

Knights of Columbus, Bishop O'Dowd Council, supports strong and happy Catholic families. Next month we will be recognizing one of the families at the IHM Oratory as the Family of the Month. Sunday, November 5, you are invited to a presentation after the 11:15a.m. Mass.

Bocce Ball Fundraiser News

Many thanks to all who participated in the Bocce Ball Fundraiser! The generous sacrifice of time and energy by the volunteers will not be unrewarded. The evening was a success on all fronts: a delicious dinner, truly enjoyable entertainment, and the opportunity to converse with Oratory friends that we may not be able to connect with every Sunday. The Oratory benefited in its effort to obtain a suitable home by an encouraging $5,058!

November is the Month of the Poor Souls

As we approach the month of November, please submit the names of your departed family and friends to be placed by the Altar. It is a mark of gratitude to pray for all those who helped us in the past. We confidently believe that the prayers at the Altar are most profitable for them and the most effective means of releasing the souls of the faithful departed from their torments in Purgatory. Any voluntary donation in honor of the Poor Souls will be used to purchase liturgical items for our Oratory.

Our Guardian Angels

St. Bernard tells us that we owe our Guardian Angel profound respect for his presence, confidence in his love and power to protect us, and gratitude for the great benefits which he confers upon us. “Always remember that you are in the presence of your Guardian Angel,” he admonishes his monks. “In whatever place you may be, in whatever secret recess you may hide, think of your Guardian Angel. Never do in the presence of your Angel what you would not do in my presence.”

When we remember his willingness to help us and his powerful intercession with God, we cannot fail to have boundless confidence in our Angel. Since he is in the presence of God, the fount of wisdom, we should ask his counsel in every problem that we face. And as duty and decency require, we should be grateful to him like the young Tobias, who had St. Raphael for his Guardian Angel, exclaiming, “What wages shall we give him, or what can be worthy of his benefits?” (Tob. 12:2)
