Twenty-third Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, as Jesus was speaking to the multitudes, behold a certain ruler came up and adored Him, saying: Lord, my daughter is even now dead; but come lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus, rising up, followed him, with His disciples. And behold a woman, who was troubled with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His garment. For she said within herself: If I shall touch only His garment, I shall be healed. But Jesus turning and seeing her, said: Be of good heart, daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus was come into the house of the ruler, and saw the minstrels and the multitude making a tumult, He said: Give place; for the girl is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed Him to scorn. And when the multitude was put forth, He went in, and took her by the hand. And the maid arose. And the fame thereof went abroad into all that country.

You Can Help the Holy Souls!

November is the month the Church dedicates especially to prayers for the souls in Purgatory. They will be grateful for eternity after their entrance into Heaven.

You can gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the souls in Purgatory under the usual conditions if you:

- Visit a cemetery any day between November 1 and November 8 and pray for the departed souls.

Partial indulgences can be earned for the souls in Purgatory on any day of the year if you:

- Visit a cemetery and pray for the dead.
- Recite Lauds or Vespers from the Office of the Dead or the prayer "Eternal Rest" or "Requiem Aeternam," "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace." These are spiritual acts of mercy to help our brothers and sisters in Christ who are still in Purgatory that they might attain total purification and finally be able to contemplate the beautiful face of Jesus.
