Twenty-sixth and Last Sunday After Pentecost

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples: When you shall see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (he that readeth, let him understand); then they that are in Judea, let them flee to the mountains; and he that is on the house-top, let him not come down to take anything out of his house; and he that is in the field, let him not go back to take his coat. And woe to them that are with child, and that give suck, in those days. But pray that your flight be not in the winter, or on the sabbath; for there shall be then great tribulation, such as hath not been found from the beginning of the world until now, neither shall be; and unless those days had been shortened, no flesh should be saved; but for the sake of the elect, those days shall be shortened.

Visit of Bishop Cantu

The IHM Oratory, canonically erected in the Diocese of San Jose in December of 2013, will be celebrating its 10th year anniversary. The last time the bishop visited was in 2019. It is the traditional, constant, and orthodox teaching of the Church that the bishop is the visible head and foundation of unity in the local church. May God continue to guide us through the presence and ministry of our good and faithful bishop. Bishop Cantu will give Benediction which will be followed by a reception. Saturday, December 9, at 10:00a.m. Please pick up a sheet for joining the spiritual bouquet for the bishop's intentions and return it by Thursday, December 7.

The Choir Needs Men's Voices

Adorning the Altar

Generous volunteers have already supplied flowers for the Altar for the weeks leading up to Advent. At this time, donations for buying poinsettias for the Christmas season would be greatly appreciated since Advent is a penitential season when flowers are not used to adorn the Altar. After Christmas, sign-ups for flower arrangement donations will resume. Thank you for your generosity.
