The Vigil and the Octave of Christmas

At that time the shepherds said one to another: Let us go over to Bethlehem, and let us see this word that is come to pass, which the Lord hath showed to us. And they came with haste: and they found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. And seeing they understood of the word that had been spoken to them concerning this child. And all that heard wondered: and at those things that were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these words, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen as it was told unto them.

The Oratory needs your help!

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Oratory is looking for people to help with the tasks necessary for advancing the apostolate. We are hoping for volunteers from among the local Oratory members as well as volunteers who live far off but are willing and able to help. We are using social media to reach out locally and further afield. Our volunteer base is generous and valiant, but it is time to look for reinforcements. What is needed right now is a capable person who is available to put in about two hours per week on social media for the Oratory. We work in conjunction with the other apostolates of the Institute of Christ the King around the country using a common infrastructure.

Matching gift Report: $35,412

We have $14,588 to go to match the gift of $50,000. Thank you for your participation and generosity!

Special Blessing of Epiphany Holy Water

On Friday, January 5, after the evening Mass, there will be a special blessing of Epiphany Holy Water. This special Holy Water recalls the waters of the Jordan River and is a visible reminder of Christ's Divinity revealed by His Heavenly Father at His Baptism. This blessed Epiphany water also recalls the water changed miraculously by Christ into wine at Cana as a foreshadowing of the institution of the Holy Eucharist
