First Sunday of Lent

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert, to be tempted by the Devil. And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterwards He was hungry. And the tempter coming said to Him: If Thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. Who answered and said: It is written: Not in bread alone doth man live, but in every word that proceedeth from the mouth of God. Then the Devil took Him up into the holy city and set Him upon the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him: If Thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down. For it is written: That He hath given His Angels charge over Thee, and in their hands shall they bear Thee up, lest perhaps Thou dash Thy foot against a stone. Jesus said to him: It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again the Devil took Him up into a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them, and said to Him: All these will I give Thee, if falling down Thou wilt adore me. Then Jesus saith to him: Begone, Satan! For it is written: Thy Lord Thy God shalt thou sore, and Him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil left Him. And behold Angels came, and ministered to Him.

U.S. Provincial Appeal

"Many Apostolates, One Mission"

Do you value what the Institute of Christ the King is doing in the Church today? This Lent, consider making a sacrifice of $80, just two dollars a day during these forty days to help the Institute continue its work for the salvation of souls. Faithful Catholics who support the Institute of Christ the King around the nation contribute to this end with over $152,000 given last year.

On Sunday, February 25, there will be a special second collection for this appeal to help the Institute grow in the U.S.A. This Lent, make a difference in the Church today by donating to the Institute apostolates working to restore Catholic life and culture in America. Thank you for your generous support! May Christ our King reward you eternally.

Please Note: Visit of Monsignor Gilles Wach on Saturday, May 25

Visit of Monsignor Wach, founder and prior general of the Institute of Christ the King will be visiting us with Canon Talarico, provincial of the Institute in the US, on Saturday May 25. Solemn High mass at 9 a.m.

The prophets of the Old Testament foretold that God's Spirit would rest upon the Messiah to sustain his mission. Their prophecy was fulfilled when Jesus the Messiah was conceived by the Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. The Holy Spirit descended on Jesus on the occasion of his baptism by John. Jesus' entire mission occurred in communion with the Spirit. Before he died, Jesus promised that the Spirit would be given to the Apostles and to the entire Church. After his death, he was raised by the Father in the power of the Spirit.

Confirmation deepens our baptismal life that calls us to be missionary witnesses of Jesus Christ in our families, neighborhoods, society, and the world. . . . We receive the message of faith in a deeper and more intensive manner with great emphasis given to the person of Jesus Christ, who asked the Father to give the Holy Spirit to the Church for building up the community in loving service.
