Septuagesima Sunday - Feb 13th, A.D. 2022

VERITATEM FACIENTES IN CARITATE - LIVING THE TRUTH IN CHARITY

From the Music Director, Mr. Matthew Lancaster

- The Pueri Cantores Children's Choir will start this Sunday after the 10:30am High Mass with a 30-minute introduction in the church basement. Please see the sign-up sheets and info at the back of church.

- Chanting the responses at High Mass can be a great way to "pray twice" as St. Augustine famously remarked. Chanting, like praying, is an Art that requires practice, training, and time. To improve our congregational singing and correct a few errors, we ask that those who wish to participate at High Mass by chanting the responses, listen closely to the choir the next few weeks rather than singing along.

- Next Congregational Practice Next Sunday, Feb. 20 at 10:25am.

Bring out your Palms by Feb 27th

This year Ash Wednesday falls on March 2nd. In preparation, from Feb. 13th - 27th, you can place your old blessed palms in the designated basket at the back of church. On Feb 28th, the palms will be burned to make the ashes for Ash Wednesday.

(Palms brought in later will not be accepted.)

NEXT SUNDAY AFTER THE HIGH MASS

20-minute

Los Niños de la Virgen

Children are invited to learn about the Apparitions of Our Lady through coloring books.

Excerpt from The Liturgical Year by Dom Gueranger, O.S.B. "History of Septuagesima"

The Season of Septuagesima comprises the three weeks immediately preceding Lent.

Now, the Feast of Easter must be prepared for by a forty-days' recollectedness and penance. Those forty-days are one of the principal Seasons of the Liturgical Year, and one of the most powerful means employed by the Church for exciting in the hearts of her children the spirit of their Christian vocation. It is of the utmost importance, that such a Season of penance should produce its work in our souls - the renovation of the whole spiritual life. The Church, therefore, has instituted a preparation for the holy time of Lent. She gives us the three weeks of Septuagesima, during which she withdraws us, as much as may be, from the noisy distractions of the world, in order that our hearts may be the more readily impressed by the solemn warning she is to give us, at the commencement of Lent, by marking our foreheads with ashes.

Thus was the present important period of the Liturgical Year, after various changes, established in the Cycle of the Church. It has been there upward of a thousand years. Its name, Septuagesima (Seventy), expresses, as we have already remarked, a numerical relation to Quadragesima (the Forty Days). The first Sunday of Lent being called Quadragesima (Forty), each of the three previous Sundays has a name expressive of an additional ten: the nearest to Lent being called Quinquagesima (Fifty); the middle one, Sexagesima (Sixty); the third, Septuagesima (Seventy).

"And the king answering, shall say to them: Amen I say to you, as long as you did it to one of these my least brethren, you did it to me." Matt. 25:40

Thought from St. Francis de Sales:

Pearls conceived and nourished by wind or thunder claps are mere crust, devoid of substance. So also when virtues and fine qualities are conceived and nurtured by pride and vanity, they are without substance or solidity, having merely the appearance of good. Honors, dignities and rank are like saffron, which thrives best and grows most plentifully when trodden under foot.

Septuagesima Sunday

INTROIT: Ps. 17: 5-7, 2, 3 The sorrows of death surrounded me, the sorrows of hell encompassed me: and in my affliction I called upon the Lord, and He heard my voice from His holy temple. (Ps) I will love Thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my firmament, my refuge, and my deliverer. Glory be. The sorrows of death...

COLLECT: Graciously hear, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the prayers of Thy people, that we, who are justly afflicted for our sins, may for the glory of Thy name be mercifully delivered. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: 1 Cor. 9: 24-27; 10: 1-5 Brethren, know you not that they that run in the race, all run indeed, but one receiveth the prize? So run that you may obtain. And every one that striveth for the mastery refraineth himself from all things: and they indeed that they may receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible one. I therefore so run, not as at an uncertainty; I so fight, not as one beating the air: but I chastise my body, and bring it into subjection: lest perhaps when I have preached to others, I myself should become a castaway. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all in Moses were baptized, in the cloud and in the sea: and did all eat the same spiritual food, and drank the same spiritual drink: (and they drank of the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ). But with most of them God was not well pleased.

GRADUAL: Ps. 9: 10,11,19,20 A helper in due time in tribulation: let them trust in Thee who know Thee: for Thou hast not forsaken them that seek Thee, O Lord. For the poor man shall not be forgotten to the end: the patience of the poor shall not perish for ever: arise, O Lord, let not man prevail.

TRACT: Ps. 129: 1-4 Out of the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Let Thine ears be attentive to the prayer of Thy servant. If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities: Lord, who shall stand it? For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness, and by reason of Thy law, I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

GOSPEL: Mt. 20: 1-16 At that time Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The kingdom of heaven is like to a householder who went out early in the morning to hire laborers into his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing in the market place idle, and he said to them: Go you also into my vineyard, and I will give you what shall be just. And they went their way. And again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour: and did in like manner. But about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing, and he saith to them: Why stand you here all the day idle? They say to him: Because no man hath hired us. He saith to them: Go you also into my vineyard. And when evening was come, the lord of the vineyard saith to his steward: Call the laborers and pay them their hire, beginning from the last even to the first. When therefore they were come, that came about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first also came, they thought that they should receive more: and they also received every man a penny. And receiving it they murmured against the master of the house, saying: These last have worked but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us, that have borne the burden of the day and the heats. But he answering said to one of them: Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst thou not agree with me for a penny? Take what is thine and go thy way: I will also give to this last even as to thee. Or, is it not lawful for me to do what I will? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? So shall the last be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 91: 2 It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing to Thy name, O Most High.

SECRET: Receive our offerings and prayers, we beseech Thee, O Lord, and by these heavenly mysteries both cleanse us and graciously hear us. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Ps. 30: 17-18 Make Thy face to shine upon Thy servant, and save me in Thy mercy: let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon Thee.

POSTCOMMUNION: May Thy faithful people, O God, be strengthened by Thy gifts; that in receiving them, they may seek after them the more, and in seeking them, may receive them for ever. Through our Lord.
