Please join us for our weekly Wednesday Devotions to St. Joseph. We pray the Litany of St. Joseph after Mass plus several prayers of the Saints to St. Joseph! In our times, we must implore St. Joseph's protection over the Church.

Thought from St. Francis de Sales:

How beautiful is the face of Jesus transfigured on Mount Tabor [cf. Mt. 17:2] and how beautiful it is to keep Him company on that mount of glory! There we must center our desires and our affections, not in this land of miseries, where we can find only vain beauty of beautiful vanity! By the grace of our Savior, however, we are climbing Tabor, because we have made stable and firm resolutions to love deeply and to serve the Divine Goodness. But we must encourage ourselves with holy hope and climb without getting tired, until we have that heavenly vision of God. So let us detach ourselves, little by little, from base and earthly affections, and look forward to the heavenly happiness that awaits us.

About Sunday Vespers

Traditionally, it was commonplace for the pious Faithful to assist at public Solemn Vespers on Sunday evening. The Office of Vespers has a special significance because it is the 'evening sacrifice' as spoken of by the Prophet David in Psalm 140: 'Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice!' As a sacrificial prayer, this Office is very closely linked to the offering of the Most Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, stemming from the evening sacrifice of Christ on the Cross and the offering of the Last Supper, the fulfillment of the old Jewish Temple sacrifices. At Vespers we offer up to God, not the Bread of Heaven as the Body and Blood of Christ under the appearance of bread and wine, but rather the Bread of Heaven as the word that

(cf. Mt. 4:4).

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT: Ps. 53: 6,7,3 Behold, God is my helper, and the Lord is the protector of my soul: turn back the evils upon mine enemies, and cut them off in Thy truth, O Lord, my protector. (Ps) Save me, O God, by Thy name, and deliver me in Thy strength. Glory be. Behold, God is my helper...

COLLECT: Let Thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of Thy suppliant people: and that Thou mayest grant their desire to those that seek, make them ask such things as please Thee. Through our Lord.

EPISTLE: I Cor. 10: 6-13 Brethren: let us not covet evil things, as they also coveted. Neither become ye idolaters, as some of them: as it is written: The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and there fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. Neither do you murmur, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer. Now all these things happened to them in figure, and they are written for our correction, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore he that thinketh himself to stand, let him take heed lest he fall. Let no temptation take hold on you, but such as is human; and God is faithful, Who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which you are able, but will make also with temptation issue, that you may be able to bear it.

GRADUAL: Ps. 8: 2 O Lord, our Lord, how admirable is Thy name in the whole earth! For Thy magnificence is elevated above the heavens.

ALLELUIA: Ps. 58 2 Alleluia, alleluia. Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: and defend me from them that rise up against me. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Lk. 19: 41-47 At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, seeing the city, He wept over it saying: If thou also hadst known, and that in this thy day, the things that are to thy peace: but now they are hidden from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, and thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and straiten thee on every side; and beat thee flat to the ground, and thy children who are in thee; and they shall not leave in thee a stone upon a stone, because thou hast not known the time of thy visitation. And entering into the temple, He began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought, saying to them: It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves. And He was teaching daily in the temple.

OFFERTORY: Ps. 18: 9-12 The justices of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts, and His judgments sweeter than honey and the honeycomb; for Thy servant keepeth them.

SECRET: Grant to us, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that we may worthily frequent these mysteries: for as often as the memorial of this Victim is celebrated, the work of our Redemption is wrought. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION: Jn. 6: 57 He that eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, abideth in Me, and I in him, saith the Lord.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the communion of Thy Sacrament, we beseech Thee, O Lord, bring us cleansing and grant us unity. Through our Lord.
