GENERAL REMARKS ON INDULGENCES

From the Office of the Apostolic Penitentiary

An indulgence is defined in the Code of Canon Law (can. 992) and in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (n. 1471) as “a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints.”

In general, the gaining of indulgences requires certain prescribed conditions, and the performance of certain prescribed works.

To gain indulgences, whether plenary or partial, it is necessary that the faithful be in the state of grace at least at the time the indulgenced work is completed.

A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace:

- have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
- have sacramentally confessed their sins;
- receive Holy Communion;
- pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.

It is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope’s intentions take place on the same day that the indulgenced work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulgenced act. One sacramental Confession suffices for several plenary indulgences, but a separate Holy Communion and a separate prayer for the Holy Father’s intentions are required for each plenary indulgence. Prayer for the Pope’s intentions is left to the choice of the faithful, but an “Our Father” and a “Hail Mary” are suggested. The Pope’s intentions are four in number : 1. The progress of the Faith and triumph of the Church; 2. Peace and union among Christian Princes and Rulers; 3. The conversion of sinners; 4. The uprooting of heresy. Indulgences can always be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but they cannot be applied to other persons still living.

2024 MASS INTENTIONS

The Mass intention book for next year is now open; you may send in your Mass intentions for 2024. Please note the following:

- At this time, we can accept only 3 intentions per month per registered member household.
- If you request particular dates, we will do the best we can to schedule as close to the date as possible.
- Please use a Mass Intention envelope (at the back of the church) and drop it into the collection basket with your stipend (cash or check payable to Institute of Christ the King)
- If you are requesting multiple intentions, please use only one envelope and include a list of your intentions in the envelope.
- When scheduled, the dates of the Masses you requested will be sent to you by email.

THOUGHT FROM ST. FRANCIS DE SALES

We are like stags on which powerful princes have placed collars bearing their coat of arms. Even after they have been let out and set free in the forest, whoever comes upon them must recognize them as having once belonged to this prince...God has put a desire for Himself in our souls, and this is a sign that we belong to Him. He has reserved the right to bring us back again to Himself and to save us according as His sweet and holy Providence shall dictate. (T.L.G. Book 1, Ch. 18; O. IV, pp. 84-85)
