PRAYERS & INSTRUCTION

Remarks of St. Bernard on the Name of Jesus

The sweet name of Jesus produces in us holy thoughts, fills the soul with noble sentiments, strengthens virtue, begets good works, and nourishes pure affections. This name is the cure for all diseases of the soul.

Are you troubled? Think but of Jesus, speak but the name of Jesus, the clouds disperse, and peace descends anew from heaven.

Have you fallen into sin? So that you fear death? Invoke the name of Jesus, and no weakness, no coldness of heart can resist this holy name; there is no heart which will not soften and open in tears at this holy name.

Are you surrounded by sorrow and danger? Invoke the name of Jesus, and your fears will vanish. Never yet was a human being in urgent need, and on the point of perishing, who invoked this help-giving name, and was not powerfully sustained. It was given to us for the cure of all our ills; to soften the impetuosity of anger, to quench the fire of concupiscence, to conquer pride, to mitigate the pain of our wounds, to overcome the thirst of avarice, to quiet sensual passions, and the desires of lowly pleasures.

If we call to our minds the name of Jesus, it brings before us His most meek and humble heart, and gives us a new knowledge of His most loving and tender compassion. The name of Jesus is the purest, and holiest, the noblest and most indulgent of names, the name of all blessings and of all virtues; it is the name of the God-Man, infinite God who, having given us His life as an example has also bestowed the necessary understanding, energy and assistance to enable us to follow and imitate Him, in our thoughts, inclinations, works and actions. If the name of Jesus reaches the depths of our heart, it leaves heavenly virtue there. We say, therefore, with our great master, St. Paul the Apostle: If any man love not our Lord Jesus Christ, let him be anathema. (I. Cor. Xvi. 22.)

ANNOUNCEMENTS & INFORMATION

Welcome to Saint Anthony Oratory!

We are happy to have you with us today. Please join us after the 9am & 11am Mass for coffee, a sweet, and some good company in the parish hall below.

DONATION STATEMENTS

It is almost time again for the issuance of 2021 donation statements. While a number have filled out the census form to update our files, there remains others who have not. Therefore please contact the Oratory office your mailing address has changed since this time last year. It happens often that a number of statements are returned due to incorrect mailing addresses. Thank you in advance.

IMPORTANT REMINDER

Please remember to write all checks out to: Institute of Christ the King

The Oratory would like to bring to the attention of our newcomers and visitors that ALL checks written to St. Anthony, be made out to our account name as above. Checks made to any other name may be rejected by the bank.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR UNDERSTANDING AND ATTENTION TO THIS MATTER.

CANDLEMAS CANDLES

The Confraternity of the Holy Rosary will be taking orders 100% bees-wax candles for home use. These candles will be solemnly blessed at on the feast of the Purification (Candlemas- Feb. 2nd) and distributed the following Sunday. Please see the order form in the vestibule in the coming weeks for information.

It is customary to bring candles from home to be blessed -- at least 51% bees-wax candles that one uses for devotional purposes (candles for the family altar, Advent candles, etc.) -- so they can be lit after dusk on All Saints' Day, during the administration of Extreme Unction, and during storms or times of trouble.

What is the Institute's SOCIETY OF THE SACRED HEART

A lay association within the spiritual family of the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest, the Society of the Sacred Heart gives the opportunity for lay faithful to participate more deeply by a serious engagement in the spirituality of the Institute. There are no vows or binding obligations involved - simply a personal commitment. Membership is not necessary to be a good Catholic. Members strive to live a "rule of life" in accordance with their particular duties of lay men and women living in today's society. This "rule of life" is chiefly comprised of Holy Mass and Communion (if not possible everyday, then as often as circumstances permit), frequent confession, occasional spiritual direction, daily recitation of the Office of Compline, daily prayers for the intentions of the Institute, as well as regular meditation and spiritual reading of Holy Scripture and the works of the patron saints of the Institute.

FIRST 2022 CCD CLASS

Please note the necessary change in our first Catechism Class for the new year. We will begin classes again on January 23rd, NOT January 16th as was previous posted.

HOLY NAME OF JESUS

INTROIT. Philip. 2, 10, 11. In the name of Jesus let every knee bow of those that are in heaven, on earth, and under the earth; and let every tongue confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father. Ps. 8, 2. O Lord, our Lord, how wonderful is Thy name in the whole earth! V. Glory.

PRAYER. O God, Who didst appoint Thine only-begotten Son to be the Saviour of the human race, and didst command that He be called Jesus, mercifully grant that we may enjoy in heaven the vision of Him Whose holy name we venerate on earth. Through the same.

LESSON. Acts 4, 8-12. In those days, Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said, Ye princes of the people and ancients, hear: If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the infirm man, by what means he hath been made whole, be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Our Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Whom ye crucified, Whom God hath raised from the dead, even by Him this man standeth here before you whole. This is the stone which was rejected by you the builders; which is become the head of the corner: neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men, whereby we must be saved.

GRADUAL. Ps. 105, 47. Save us, O Lord, our God, and gather us from among the nations: that we may give thanks to Thy holy name, and may glory in Thy praise. V. Is. 63, 16. Thou, O Lord, art our Father and Redeemer, Thy name is from eternity.

ALLELUIA. Alleluia, alleluia. V. Ps. 144, 21. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord, and let all flesh bless His holy name. Alleluia.

GOSPEL. Luke 2, 21. At that time, after eight days were accomplished that the child should be circumcised, His name was called Jesus, which was called by the angel, before He was conceived in the womb.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 85, 12, 5. I will praise Thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and I will glorify Thy name for ever; for Thou, O Lord, art sweet and mild, and plenteous in mercy to all that call upon Thee. Alleluia.

SECRET. May Thy blessing, O most merciful God, by which the whole creation hath life, sanctify this our sacrifice, which we offer Thee to the glory of the name of Thy Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, that it may be pleasing to Thy majesty as an act of praise and be profitable to us for our salvation. Through the same.

COMMUNION. Ps. 85, 9, 10. All the nations Thou hast made shall come and adore before Thee, O Lord; and they shall glorify Thy name: for Thou art great, and dost wonderful things. Thou art God alone. Alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNION. Almighty, eternal God, Who hast created and redeemed us, graciously regard our desires, and deign to receive with kind and peaceful countenance the sacrifice of the saving victim, which we have offered to Thy majesty, in honor of the name of Thy Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, that, Thy grace being poured out upon us, we may rejoice in the glorious name of Jesus, the title of eternal predestination, because our names are written in heaven. Through the same.

INFORMATION FOR NEWCOMERS

Welcome to St. Anthony of Padua Oratory and the traditional Latin Mass offered by the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest. We are pleased to have you join us in this venerable act of worship and invite you to return often.

In the traditional Mass, each person has his proper role; be it celebrant, server, choir, usher, or congregation. At High Mass, the choir makes all sung responses, and at Low Mass it is the function solely of the server, since this was the vision of the Church, aided by the Holy Ghost, for numerous centuries. The congregation respond internally as opposed to vocally, and this is still, according to Pope Pius XII in his encyclical "Mystici Corporis" active participation. We must always remember that active participation in all its facets begins in the heart, for without which our prayers are but empty shells.

While silent meditation or fervent recitation of the Holy Rosary have always been regarded as active participation, it is highly recommended that to assist at the Mass more fully we follow the prayers of the Mass. For this purpose, please use the pew missals provided paying particular attention to the notes in the margin. All the "propers," or parts of the Mass which are different according to the day, can be found in the bulletin or the handout on the tables in the rear of the church. Simply follow those around you when to stand, sit and kneel, and please keep a "holy silence" in the church at all times out of respect of Christ's presence in the tabernacle. Lastly, since there is no mixing of the old and new, Holy Communion is received on the tongue while kneeling.

A GENTLE REMINDER: ONLY PRACTICING CATHOLICS IN THE STATE OF GRACE (NOT HAVE UNCONFESSED SERIOUS SIN ON ONE'S SOUL) ARE FREE TO RECEIVE COMMUNION.
