PRAYERS & INSTRUCTION

OUR SACRIFICES FOR THE MASS

Once there lived a man, a devote Catholic, who was well known for his fidelity to attending daily Mass. This man lived no less than four leagues from the church; yet regardless of this obstacle, he was sure to be present every morning for Mass. In due time, the man became advanced in years, so that he wondered how much longer he would be able to make the daily journey to and fro. Alas the day came when he concluded that it was no longer wise that he should make such a long trek, but that he should move closer to the town.

On the morning of the day of his planned move, steadily he traveled the familiar roads which lead to the church. However this morning, soon after his departure, he heard the voice of a young man counting, "101, 102, 103,..." Startled by the voice, he immediately turned about but found not a single person in sight. "Clearly, I am only imagining thing it," he said to himself, and continued on his way. A little further on, again he heard the same voice counting. Turning, this time he found a stately young man of extraordinary height and build following him; it was this man who was counting. Uncertain as how to act, the young man immediately spoke, "Do not be afraid, I do you no harm." The old man, regaining his composure, replied, "Who are you and why do you count as I walk?" After a moment of silent the young man responded, "I am your angel guardian. I have been asked to count the steps you take on your daily trip to Mass." Rather taken back and puzzled by these words, the old man asked, "Why is it that you do this." To which the angel answered, "I am to relate how many steps it is that you take upon this sacrifice you make daily, so that you may be rewarded accordingly when your life is at its close." After saying this the angel disappeared, and the man heard his voice no longer.

The elderly man being very much touched by this extraordinary occurrence, spent some extra time in the church that morning. He did indeed move from his home, however, it was not to the place he had formerly chosen. Rather he chose a place not closer by an addition four leagues from the church. This he did so as to be able to offer to God yet a greater sacrifice in repair for his sins and to give Him greater glory.

All the sacrifices which we make to attend Mass will not go unrewarded. How blessed are those who's circumstance require a little more sacrifice to attend Mass with fervor and devotion, for they too will surely be rewarded in eternity for all their efforts. We need only to remember, that everything we do out of love for God, will be sure to be returned in love and grace even more abundantly, in time and in eternity. For God has not been known to be out done in generosity.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

INTROIT. I am the salvation of the people, saith the Lord: in whatever tribulation they shall cry to Me I will hear them; and I will be their Lord for ever. Ps. 77, 1. Attend, O My people, to My law; incline your ears to the words of My mouth. V. Glory.

PRAYER. Almighty and merciful God, in Thy loving kindness do Thou keep us from all things that war against us, that, being unhampered alike in soul and in body, we may with free minds perform the works that are Thine. Through.

EPISTLE. Eph. 4, 23-28. Brethren, Be ye renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, who according to God is created in justice and holiness of truth. Wherefore, putting away lying, speak ye the truth every man with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. Be angry, and sin not. Let not the sun go down upon your anger. Give not place to the devil. He that stole, let him now steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have something to give to him that suffereth need.

GRADUAL. Ps. 140, 2. Let my prayer be directed as incense in Thy sight, O Lord. V. The lifting up of my hands as evening sacrifice.

ALLELUIA, alleluia. V. Ps. 104, 1. Give glory to the Lord, and call upon His name: declare His deeds among the gentiles. Alleluia.

GOSPEL. Matt. 22, 2-14. At that time, Jesus spoke to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king, who made a marriage for his son; and he sent his servants, to call them that were invited to the marriage, and they would not come. Again he sent other servants, saying, Tell them that were invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my beeves and fatlings are killed, and all things are ready; come ye to the marriage. But they neglected: and went their ways, one to his farm, and another to his merchandise; and the rest laid hands on his servants, and having treated them contumeliously, put them to death. But when the king had heard of it, he was angry; and sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he saith to his servants, The marriage indeed is ready, but they that were invited were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as you shall find, call to the marriage. And his servants going forth into the ways, gathered together all that they found, both bad and good; and the marriage was filled with guests. And the king went in to see the guests; and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment: and he saith to him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, not having on a wedding garment? but he was silent. Then the king said to the waiters, Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen.

OFFERTORY. Ps. 137, 7. If I shall walk in the midst of tribulation, Thou wilt quicken me, O Lord; and Thou wilt stretch forth Thy hand against the wrath of my enemies: and Thy right hand shall save me.

SECRET. Grant, we beseech Thee, O Lord, that these gifts, which we offer up in the sight of Thy majesty, may be salutary unto us. Through our Lord.

COMMUNION. Ps. 118, 4, 5. Thou hast commanded Thy commandments to be kept most diligently: O that my ways may be directed to keep Thy justifications.

POSTCOMMUNION. Let Thy healing power, O Lord, in mercy deliver us from our waywardness and cause us ever to cleave to Thy commandments. Through our Lord.

INFORMATION FOR US ALL

Welcome to St. Anthony of Padua Oratory and the traditional Latin Mass offered by the Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest. We are pleased to have you join us in this venerable act of worship and invite you to return often.

In the traditional Mass, each person has his proper role, be it celebrant, server, chorister, usher, or member of the congregation. At High Mass, the choir makes all sung responses, and at Low Mass it is the function solely of the server, as this was the vision of the Church, aided by the Holy Ghost, for numerous centuries. The congregation respond internally as opposed to vocally, and this is still, according to Pope Pius XII in his encyclical Mystici Corporis, active participation. We must always remember that active participation in all its facets begins in the heart, without which our prayers are but empty shells.

While silent meditation or fervent recitation of the Holy Rosary have always been regarded as active participation, it is highly recommended that to assist at the Mass more fully we follow the prayers of the Mass. For this purpose, please use the pew missals provided, paying particular attention to the notes in the margin. All the "propers," or parts of the Mass which are different according to the day, can be found in the bulletin or the handout on the tables in the rear of the church. Simply follow those around you regarding when to stand, sit and kneel, and please keep a holy silence in the church at all times out of respect for Christ's presence in the tabernacle. Lastly, because there is no mixing of the old and new, Holy Communion is received on the tongue while kneeling.

A GENTLE REMINDER: ONLY PRACTICING CATHOLICS IN THE STATE OF GRACE (FREE FROM UNCONFESSSED SERIOUS SIN) ARE FREE TO RECEIVE COMMUNION.
