OCTAVE OF PRAYERS FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

From the 18th to the 25th of January, an octave of prayers are traditionally offered for the return of our separated brethren to Catholic unity; this is done in honor of the conversion of St. Paul whose feast we celebrate on the last day of the octave (January 25).

Therefore, the oration 'pro Ecclesiae unitate' will take the place of the usual oration 'pro Papa' in all Masses during this octave.

ADDITIONAL MASS

Please note that there will be an additional Mass at 6:00 AM this Friday, January 19 for participants of the March for Life, however all are welcome.

INSTRUCTION

THE BAPTISM OF OUR LORD

Saint Francis de Sales notes that from time to time we need to reenergize the resolution we made in baptism to be children of God.

The first Christians celebrated the anniversary of their Baptism, the day that they dedicated themselves to becoming children of God. We also ought to renew our commitment to the service of the Divine Goodness. In celebrating our baptismal vows, we strengthen our fervor, renew our promises and reaffirm our good resolutions.

A good lute player has the habit of testing the strings of his instrument to see if they need tightening or loosening to sound harmonious. Likewise, it is necessary for us to examine our affections that are not in balance, and our neglected resolutions. We need to see what we must do to recover what, by our weakness or negligence, we have lost. We must not be surprised at this because it seems that even the sun needs to start its course anew once a year to repair in spring the losses the earth suffered in winter. Just by renewing our commitment we can start to repair our faults.

We can also regain lost time by fervor and diligence in totally uniting ourselves again to Our Lord. During our journey on this earth, Our Lord leads us by the hand, causing us to walk in virtue, or He carries us in the arms of His Divine Providence. His goodness is willing to lead us and to carry us, but He also wants us to take our little steps alone, doing on our part all that we can, helped by His holy love. Happy are the souls, who travel through life doing what they can in the practice of virtue and good works, and still holding on to the hand of our Lord! They are the children who sing the canticle of the glory of God because they dedicate themselves to the service of Divine Goodness as Jesus did at his baptism.

DONATION STATEMENTS

It is time again to issue 2023 donation statements. Many of you have filled out the census form to update our files. Many others have not. Therefore if your mailing address has changed since this time last year, please fill out a census form in the vestibule or contact the Oratory office. It happens often that a number of statements are returned due to incorrect mailing addresses. Please return your census form in the collection basket. Thank you in advance.

CANDELMAS CANDLES

On Sundays January 21 and 28, the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary will be selling 100% beeswax candles for home use.

It is customary to bring candles from home to be blessed. They can be used on the family altar, lit after dusk on All Saints' Day, during the administration of Extreme Unction, and during storms or times of trouble.

LOST & FOUND

For those who are not aware of the lost and found area at St. Anthony's, lost items are placed in the large basket located on the first landing of the choir loft stairwell. If any item is of significant value, however, it will be placed in the priest's sacristy.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

Introit. Ps 65:4 Let all on earth worship You, O God, and sing praise to You, sing praise to Your name, Most High. Ps 65:1-2 Shout joyfully to God, all you on earth, sing praise to the glory of His name; proclaim His glorious praise. V Glory. Let all on earth worship You, O God, and sing praise to You, sing praise to Your name, Most High.

Collect. Almighty, everlasting God, You Who govern both the heavens and the earth, graciously hear the humble prayers of Your people and grant us Your peace all the days of our life. Through Jesus Christ.

Epistle. Rom 12:6-16 Brethren: We have gifts differing according to the grace that has been given us, such as prophecy to be used according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, in ministering; or he who teaches, in teaching; he who exhorts, in exhorting; he who gives, in simplicity; he who presides, with carefulness; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without pretense. Hate what is evil, hold to what is good. Love one another with honor. Be not slothful in zeal; be fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, rejoicing in hope. Be patient in tribulation, persevering in prayer. Share the needs of the saints, practicing hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. Be of one mind towards one another. Do not set your mind on high things but condescend to the lowly.

Gradual. Ps 106:20-21. The Lord sent forth His word to heal them and to snatch them from destruction. V. Let them give thanks to the Lord for His kindness and His wondrous deeds to the children of men.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ps 148:2 Praise the Lord, all you His angels, praise Him, all you His hosts. Alleluia.

Gospel. John 2:1-11. At that time, a marriage took place at Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Now Jesus too was invited to the marriage, and also His disciples. And the wine having run short, the mother of Jesus said to Him, They have no wine. And Jesus said to her, What would you have me do, woman? My hour has not yet come. His mother said to the attendants, Do whatever He tells you. Now six stone water-jars were placed there, after the Jewish manner of purification, each holding two or three measures. Jesus said to them, Fill the jars with water. And they filled them to the brim. And Jesus said to them, Draw out now, and take to the chief steward. And they took it to him. Now when the chief steward had tasted the water after it had become wine, not knowing whence it was - though the attendants who had drawn the water knew, - the chief steward called the bridegroom, and said to him, Every man at first sets forth the good wine, and when they have drunk freely, then that which is poorer. But you have kept the good wine until now. This first of His signs Jesus worked at Cana of Galilee; and He manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

Offerstory. Ps 65:1-2, 16. Shout joyfully to God, all you on earth, sing praise to the glory of His name. Hear now, all you who fear God, while I declare what the Lord has done for me. Alleluia.

Seret. Hallow our offerings, O Lord, and cleanse us from the stains of our sins. Through Jesus Christ.

Communion. John 2:7-11. The Lord said, Fill the jars with water and take to the chief steward. When the chief steward had tasted the water after it had become wine, he said to the bridegroom, You have kept the good wine until now. This first miracle Jesus worked in the presence of His disciples.

Postcommunion. O Lord, we beseech You that the effects of Your power may ever increase within us; and, strengthened by the divine sacrament, we may be prepared by Your grace to lay hold of what it promises. Through Jesus Christ.

How to Request a Mass Intention

The preferred way of requesting a Mass intention is by filling out an envelope, which can be found on the back tables, and dropping it in the collection basket. You may also make requests in person or by phone or email. However, this can, at times, become overwhelming and is prone to error. One envelope suffices for multiple intentions, unless there is danger of confusion.

The name of the requestor will be published in the bulletin and used in the card as written.

This tells us the amount you wish to give for the stipend / Mass offering(s).

If a public Mass is not necessary, please check this box.
