SPIRITUAL FATHERHOOD OF SAINT JOSEPH

Why did Jesus need the fatherhood of St Joseph at all since God is Jesus' Father? It's a good question. Essentially, Jesus needed St Joseph as a father because the human nature of Jesus required it. When the Son of God became incarnate, He placed Himself under the human requirement of needing a human father to love, feed, educate, shelter, clothe, and protect Him. Jesus, the Incarnate Word, is not a pure spiritual being having a divine and a human nature. In His human nature, Jesus had physical, emotional, and psychological needs that could be fulfilled by a human father. St Joseph stands in the place of the Heavenly Father having been entrusted with taking care of the human nature, growth, and development of Jesus. Through the fatherhood of St Joseph, Jesus grew into the fullness of his manhood. The divine nature of Jesus did not need anything from St Joseph, but the human nature of Jesus did require the fatherhood of St Joseph.

The Apostles spent three years with Jesus, but Mary spent more than 30 years with him! This is important because the human nature of Jesus needed to learn certain things from the maternal love and example of His mother. As important as a mother is in the human development of a child, there is only so much a mother can teach a child, especially a boy. Jesus is a male. As a male, He needed a father to teach him what it is to be a man. Jesus needed the fatherhood of St. Joseph as a model of masculinity for Him to imitate. Only a father can do this for a son. How did Jesus learn to sacrifice as a man? He witnessed the daily example of his father. Where did Jesus learn to work as a man? He learned it in his father's carpentry shop. How did Jesus learn to pray and acquire the manners of a gentleman? Jesus learned all these things from his father, Saint Joseph.

DAILY PRAYER TO ST JOSEPH

written by Saint Francis de Sales

Glorious St. Joseph, Spouse of Mary, grant us thy paternal protection, we beseech thee by the Heart of Jesus Christ. O Thou whose power extends to all our necessities and can render possible for us the most impossible things, open thy fatherly eyes to the needs of thy children. In the troubles and distress which afflicts us, we confidently have recourse to thee. Deign to take under thy charitable charge this important and difficult matter, cause of our worries. Make its happy outcome be for the glory of God and the good of His devoted servants. Amen.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Introit. Is. 66, 10, 11. Rejoice, O Jerusalem, and come together all you that love her; rejoice with joy, you that have been in sorrow: that you may exult and be filled from the breasts of your consolation. Ps. 121, 1. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord.

Collect. Grant, we beseech Thee, O almighty God, that we, who justly suffer for our deeds, may be relieved by the consolation of Thy grace. Through Our Lord.

Epistle. Gal. 4, 22-31. Brethren: It is written that Abraham had two sons; the one by a bond-woman, and the other by a free-woman. But he who was of the bond-woman was born according to the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise. Which things are said by an allegory. For these are the two testaments: the one from Mount Sina, engendering unto bondage, which is Agar: for Sina is a mountain in Arabia, which hath affinity to that Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children: but that Jerusalem which is above is free, which is our mother. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for many are the children of the desolate, more than of her that hath a husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born according to the flesh persecuted him that was after the spirit, so also it is now. But what saith the Scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son; for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman. So then, brethren, we are not the children of the bond-woman, but of the free; by the freedom wherewith Christ hath made us free.

Gradual. Ps. 121, 1, 7. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord. V. Let peace be in thy strength, and abundance in thy towers.

Tract. Ps. 124, 1, 2. They that trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Sion: he shall not be moved forever that dwelleth in Jerusalem. V. Mountains are round about it: so the Lord is round about His people, from henceforth now and forever.

Gospel. John 6, 1-15. At that time, Jesus went over the Sea of Galilee, which is that of Tiberias; and a great multitude followed Him, because they saw the miracles which

He did on them that were diseased. Jesus therefore went up into a mountain, and there He sat with His disciples. Now the Pasch, the festival day of the Jews, was near at hand. When Jesus therefore had lifted up his eyes, and seen that a very great multitude cometh to Him, He said to Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat? And this He said to try him; for He Himself knew what He would do. Philip answered, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little. One of His disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, saith to Him, There is a boy here that hath five barley loaves and two fishes; but what are these among so many? Then Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. The men therefore sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves; and when He had given thanks, He distributed to them that were set down. In like manner also of the fishes, as much as they would. And when they were filled, He said to His disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, lest they be lost. They gathered up therefore, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above to them that had eaten. Now those men, when they had seen what a miracle Jesus had done, said, This is of a truth the prophet that is to come into the world. Jesus therefore, when He knew that they would come to take Him by force and make Him king, fled again into the mountain Himself alone.

Offertory. Ps. 134, 3, 6. Praise ye the Lord, for He is good: sing ye to His name, for He is sweet: whatsoever He pleased He hath done in heaven and in earth.

Secret. We beseech Thee, O Lord, look favorably upon the sacrifices here before Thee, that they may profit us both for devotion and for salvation. Through.

Communion. Ps. 121, 3, 4. Jerusalem, which is built as a city, which is compact together; for thither did the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, to praise Thy name, O Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant us, we beseech Thee, O merciful God, that we may treat with unfeigned veneration and ever receive with heartfelt faith Thy holy rites which we constantly celebrate. Through Our Lord.
