EASTER SUNDAY
(Mass Propers available in the Parish Bulletin)

Dear faithful,

Happy Easter! Dom Prosper Gueranger tells us in The Liturgical Year:

“The practice for this holy Season mainly consists in the spiritual joy, which it should produce in every soul that is risen with Jesus. This joy is a foretaste of eternal happiness, and the Christian ought to consider it a duty to keep it up within him, ... ‘The children of the Bridegroom cannot mourn, as long as the Bridegroom is with us.’ This is the key to the whole Liturgy of this holy Season. We shall find by experience, that the joy of Easter is as salutary as the contrition and penance of Lent. Jesus on the Cross, and Jesus in the Resurrection, it is ever the same Jesus; but what He wants from us now, is that we should keep near Him, in company with His blessed Mother, His disciples, and Magdalene.”

In this spirit of Easter joy, Canon Matthew Talarico, the Institute’s US Provincial, offers his best wishes and thanks on behalf of the entire Institute in his latest letter:

“Happy and blessed Easter to each and every one of you! On behalf of our Institute’s Prior General, Monsignor Gilles Wach, I offer you our best prayerful wishes for a joyous celebration of Our Lord’s Resurrection and a spiritually fruitful Eastertide full of grace and blessing...With sincere gratitude, I thank you very much for your extraordinary generosity in this year’s Lenten Appeal for the operations of the Institute’s American province. Thanks to your remarkable response, over $122,000 was raised for the American province, with a few gifts still coming in. Deo gratias!”

Please read Canon Talarico’s entire letter attached to this Sunday’s Flocknote bulletin.

I would like to express my thanks to all who have taken part in the preparations and execution of the sacred liturgies of Holy Week: those who built the Altar of Repose, prepared the church and sanctuary, veiled the statues, served at the Altar, and chanted the prayers, to name just a few examples. Others offered services no less valuable, if not as visible. The beauty and richness of the traditional liturgy depend on the active participation of the faithful, by their interior union with Our Lord’s Sacrifice in the Holy Mass, and in the many details that comprise the solemn ceremonies designed to honor and glorify God. Even so, my heartfelt thanks can hardly compare to the abundant graces with which God rewards those who honor Him. May these graces enrich and deepen your faith throughout Eastertide!

This week, on Easter Thursday, April 21, Sursum Corda, our young adult group will have its regular monthly meeting. It starts with the Rosary in church at 6 PM, a short talk in the church hall at 6:30 pm, followed by a dinner and concluding with the chanted Office of Compline. Please rsvp to Noe Perez by Tuesday April 19 at n_perez3@u.pacific.edu. For newcomers, information about Sursum Corda is available on our website.

As much as we’d like to gather to celebrate, there will not be a reception after the Easter Sunday 1 PM Mass. In gratitude, we send our joyous best wishes to all the Sunday reception volunteers and their families on Easter Sunday. The Sunday reception will resume next week.

Looking further ahead, the next Society of the Sacred Heart meeting for our apostolate is being planned for late May. Please look for more details to come.

Finally, the Institute announces a new resource for the faithful: a radio series called “Lessons in Latin: the History of the Parts of the Mass.” Please see more details on Page 2.

A reminder: the seasonal Marian anthem is now the “Regina Caeli,” which also replaces the daily Angelus during Eastertide.

“Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, for the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.”

Wishing you a blessed Easter,
Canon Benjamin Norman

EASTER WATER

Blessing of the Easter Water took place at the Easter Vigil yesterday. If you wish, you may bring a small container to take a small portion of this water after the ceremonies, and after Mass on Easter Sunday.
